

Viva-TV's game show winner of triumvirate this 2012

October 5, 2012

Christopher de Leon, Edu Manzano, and Anja Aguilar host three different shows, all originating from the United Kingdom and America.

To welcome Anja to the Kapinoy network, IBC-13 will air an exclusive, one-on-one interview with her at 8 p.m., last September 28. Snooky Serna, who anchors IBC's flagship newscast Express Balita, will interview Anja and allow her to talk about her love, career, product endorser and certified singing champion from the business while anticipating high ratings for them recently.

The network announced had the host to the three shows: Christopher de Leon, Edu Manzano and Anja Aguilar share the distinction of hosting Viva-TV's high-rating shows as the Kapinoy network IBC.

Christopher De Leon, the country's foremost dramatic actor, got the surprise of his life when he was offered the job of hosting the Philippine edition of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, the world's most popular game show will celebrate its 12th anniversary. The famous quiz show from the UK enjoys the stellar selection of presenters all over the world, who are known not only for their hosting flair but also for easy interaction with the contestants and the ability to put drama into every question. An award-winning actor who also dabbles in singing, did not feel up to the task but took up the challenge just the same. Millionaire revolutionized TV viewing in the country and inspiring copycats to put up their own game shows. Christopher has taken a new and very successful career as TV host. Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? is seen five times a week at 6:30 p.m., Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday and 9:30 p.m. on Sunday on IBC, as its franchise-holders air PBA games on Wednesdays and Fridays. The show now have on Saturdays will feature celebrity guest, at stake in the show is the prize of P2 million. Filipino citizens of legal age who wish to join the contest can simply dial PLDT Premium Phone Service number 1-908-1-000-000. At the stake in the show is P2 million and P50,000 for home viewers who will join the mini-WW2BAM game via 8888 for Globe, the No.1 in Postpaid and Touch Mobile users. It has also records as the show with the highest commercial load today. Since then, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? become the most-watched No.1 phenomenal game show got hit of 20.7% than flagship news programs GMA's 24 Oras (25.2%) and ABS-CBN's TV Patrol (21.9%) with earning 1.2 million pesos in advertising revenues per show, according to the AGB Nielsen. With 2 million pesos to give away, it is also the TV show with the highest cash prize.

When Viva-TV acquired the right to another quiz show from the UK as well as new franchised with Endemol, there was no question as to who would be the best presenter. Everyone was of the opinion that actor and TV personality Edu Manzano has the wit and charm to carry by The Weakest Link. Celebrating 11th anniversary, The Weakest Link is seen on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday on IBC at 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. It offers contestants the chance to win P1 million. To join, call PLDT phone line 1-908-1-800-800. All contestants must be Filipino citizens at least 18 years of age. Contestants can win up to P1 million in every episode and another prize of P50,000 is at stake for lucky viewers who can join the fun by texting TWL<Name of Strongest Link> to 8888 from Globe. According to the Kantar Media, The Weakest Link as the No.1 most-watched game show is higher ratings of 25.7% than GMA's Aso ni San Roque (24.5%) and ABS-CBN's Princess and I (23.6%). As the top-rating phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? grabbed ratings leadership from The Weakest Link last Monday, October 1.

Viva-TV once more will bring in another hit show from Endemol in America, Born to be a Star, a popular talent search where contestants get the star treatment and the chance to perform in a production number on primetime TV. Tapped to do the hosting a certified singing champion Anja Aguilar. Anja is new to the game of TV presenter but herself the product of a talent competition, she accept Born to be a Star for the opportunity to held the young talents. Born to be a Star is on at 8:30 p.m. Sunday on IBC. Filipino citizens, male and female, solo or group performers, 12 years old and above are qualified to join the contest by texting BTBAS to 8888 from Globe. Coming from AGB Nielsen well respected Media Research Company. Based on the said survey, Born to be a Star got 20.5% audience share placing the said show on the third spot.

Watch out for the announcements of audition dates on IBC and in leading newspapers. The Philippine editions of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to Be a Star are production of Viva Television, a Viva Entertainment company.

Viva-TV's new three shows on IBC Edit

October 2, 2012

Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link are on IBC-13, Kapamilya, Deal or No Deal with host Luis Manzano is on ABS-CBN 2, and Manny Many Prizes with host Manny Pacquiao is on GMA-7. TV5 is joining the Endemol's game show called The Million Peso Money Drop with Bossing Vic Sotto. Even the PBA Games on Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays have been edged out by Millionaire.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13, has announced that Viva-TV acquired the franchised to the local versions of two of United Kingdom game shows and one of newest American talent search show: Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star. All three shows premiere on Kapinoy network IBC-13 this October. According to the most recent TV survey of AGB Philippines, Millionaire posted a 25-percent average rating on the primetime slot. At one point, Millionaire posted an all-time high of 38 percent audience share, besting primetime shows from ABS-CBN and GMA 7.

The IBC and Viva management is optimistic about the shows, anticipating high ratings for them.

Recently, the network announced had the host to the three shows: Christopher de Leon for Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Edu Manzano for The Weakest Link and Anja Aguilar for Born to be a Star.

Another first for Millionaire is that it is the first franchised TV show in town. Viva-TV secured the rights to the show, which first appeared in London in September 1998. It was the brainchild of producer David Briggs of the British production company, Celador. He wanted to create a quiz show funded by premium phone calls. For the longest time the 6:30PM slot has been held by news programs. This is the time slot occupied by ABS-CBN's TV Patrol and GMA 7's 24 Oras. Who Wants to be a Millionaire? will be shown 6:30-7:30pm every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Christopher de Leon will be having showdown with Mike Enriquez and Ted Failon when the No.1 also this Saturday at 8:30-9:30pm and Sunday at 9:30-10:15pm.

Meanwhile, The Weakest Link got a number 1 in dominates that timeslot on 7:30-8:30pm slots are beating by teleserye. ABS-CBN's *Princess and I is the second-placer on those days while GMA's *Aso ni San Roque share is the third-placer. It seems that Viva TV's *Who Wants To Be A Millionaire is beating the lights out of the competing ABS-CBN and GMA shows, everyday that WWTBAM is on. Viva-TV executive Veronique del Rosario-Corpuz said targeting mass-based, middle-class and upper-class Asian market for the anticipating winner of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star are the block-timers of Viva Television on IBC.

That relaunched last Monday back-to-back game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link got the No.1 slot, had found himself very lucky to be the network executives to deliver the Pinoy version of the world-famous game show. "It comes at a right time in my career" he says. "I have always wanted to do something like this even before the million for game shows started on primetime TV." We have seen the production values being employed by Viva-TV on their game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire and The Weakest Link, and a popular talent search show Born to be a Star with their high standards within a promo sponsors.

Also, in the import friendly market of the Philippines, struggling with ad revenue of 50% in key slots. IBC-13 would continue buying Viva Entertainment, has thrown in the towel on American foreign cartoons, Mexican telenovelas, Korean asianovelas and Japanese anime series. It seems that Viva TV's powerhouse package for the new homegrown of Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Dear Heart, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire, The Weakest Link, Born to be a Star and the PBA Games are the real threats to ABS-CBN's dominance, not GMA-7.

According to the actor Christopher de Leon, he, like Edu Manzano and Anja Aguilar was asked to audition, along that included actors, singers and models, for the three shows. "In the end, I got Millionaire, Weakest Link went to Edu and Anja got Born to be a Star," he adds.

Express Balita now top afternoon viewership nationwide

December 25, 2012

Even through the 6:30pm timeslot from TV Patrol and 24 Oras, when the afternoon last Monday (4:30pm), flagship news program Express Balita continued its reign as the No.1 program nationwide, celebrating 14th anniversary we all know is controlled by the government for the day's top stories.

More credible to the viewers behind the program should not forget the basic tenets of journalism in reporting - balance and fairness. IBC's flagship news program Express Balita has recently proven its strong afternoon slot with its astonishing ratings win by scoring a national TV rating of 23.6% last Monday (January 14), beating rival GMA's Magdalena and ABS-CBN's A Gentlemen's Dignity with only 12.8% and 6.7% national TV ratings, respectively based on the data from Kantar Media.

It is anchored by female broadcast journalist Snooky Serna with co-anchoring broadcast journalist Noli Eala who continue to delivering the news will watching while surely waiting for their favorite Viva-TV primeime shows on Viva-TV's PrimeTastik block on IBC-13. Reporters rarely go out of town now-a-days due to the lack of funds and are merely confined to cover news in Metro Manila as aggressive team to cover the polls in the most-comprehensive investigate hot news inside and outside the country.

Snooky Serna continues to hosting on IBC-13 through her morning show Magandang Umaga Ba?, alongside Bobby Yan, Pat Natividad, Smokey Manaloto, Noli Eala and Kathryn Bernarddo, and host her public service program Snooky. Noli Eala, on the other hand, is also the journalism from investigative program Crime ng Bayan and also for the news anchor segment for morning show Magandang Umaga Ba?. The reportorial teams are tasked to gather news from equal number of maintains a 24/7 shift of news reporters, cameramen and drivers are tasked to cover every major beat in the Greater Manila Area as well as nearby provinces from new writers and live reports in contrast to the OB Vans and ENG Vans used by its competitors.

Express Balita delivers the most important news in 1 hour at 4:30pm, remains fast-paced, in-depth, straightforward, unbiased and varied as its gather the latest events in politics, metro news, malacanang, provincial news, CCTV report, police report, business news, weather, showbiz news, sports news and foreign news in the capsule, while Express Balita extends public service beyond delivery of news sed to have a fair amount of viewership although the number has dwindled over the years due to the lack of funding and necessary equipment to make it a credible and competitive news program. More people trust the newscast because of its Lingkod Kapinoy segment wherein public service operating under the IBC Foundation, Inc. led by female broadcast journalists Ms. Serna extends a helping hand to those in need.

Adding to its misery is the morale currently being by its reportorial teams to its production staff its mother station their field reporters more such as allowing them to give a live coverage of the latest news rather than just hearing their voices on a taped report to make them more competitive and teleprompter to read the latest headlines.

Also features the most advanced weather graphics system powered by Weather Central, the world's leading provider of weather graphics, via its segment Ulat Panahon anchored by Jeff Arcilla. Apart from weather forecast. TV host and Filipina actress Kathryn Bernardo, meanwhile, dishes out the young actress from the entertainment scene on Express Showbiz.

Catch on the latest news, hot and timely news in Express Balita, from Monday to Friday at 4:30-5:30pm, right after KapinoyLand on IBC-13 with simulcast over DZTV Radyo Budyong 1386 and IBC News Network. The one-and-a-half hour show tagged as "Tanghaling ng Saya" lived up to its title with its wacky and exciting impression on its live studio audience.

More fun await Lunch Break viewers. Audiences should also expect even more fun and laughs with Lunch Break's Knock Knock Kumusta, Singing Teenadyer, Modus Alumni, and many more.

Join Ryan Agoncillo, Joy Viado, Smokey Manaloto, Nicole Anderson, Bianca Manalo and Enrique Gil every Monday-Saturday, 11:30AM on the Kapinoy Network, IBC-13.

Noontime work for IBC-13 Edit

The network does when go head to head against its competitors with the same program format.

ABS-CBN and GMA both offer noontime shows, It's Showtime! and Eat Bulaga!, on their noontime slots on Mondays to Saturdays. These shows claim a vast majority of the audience during the lunchtime hour so IBC-13 has come up with a new noontime variety show in hopes that viewers who are tired of dance and games formats will shift to the Kapinoy network.

The result is Lunch Break, produced by MMG Entertainment Group with main hosts Ryan Agoncillo and comedian Joy Viado with co-hosts Bianca Manalo, Smokey Manaloto, Nicoel Anderson and Enrique Gil. The show started with opening Sayaw Kabataan when the hosting is Ryan Agoncillo. What saved the opening dance competition with host Ryan Agoncillo and Joy Viado and director Danny Caparas. Every Mondays to Fridays, the 15-minute talent search found interesting was Singing Teenadyer where the singing stars have to outdo each other with young students, the daily winners will be pitted against the weekly winners for the monthly finals. A special portion on weekday is Mondus Alumni where spoof the TV commercial parodies and advertisements for spoofs just like comedy gag show is Bubble Gang of GMA and Banana Split and Goin' Bulilit of ABS-CBN.

On Tuesdays and Fridays, Dance Dance Revolution featured they help and display the dance moves for Konami video games Dance Dance Revolution for the arcade game plays stand on a dance platform stage choose more music to play to if they receive a passing score and has the Dance Dance Revolution machine.

The games enjoyed was Do the Grocery set in a Pure Gold supermarket which featured two couples given three minutes to shop for a grocery list provided by guest Anja Aguilar.

The contest ended in a tie with the couples getting three items each so they went to a tiebreaker. Were asked to get a product provided by the following clues: "Ang main ingredient nito ay itlog. Madalas itong ginagamit na palaman o dressing." The correct answer was mayonnaise and the winning home with P30,000.

On Saturday portion, in Olympic Quiz Mo! aims to instill in the youth the love for sports they give away to Globe, Talk 'N Text, Touch Mobile and Sun Cellular subscribers get a chance to play the sports game limits the time to 2 minutes. Each of game sports like basketball, boxing, football, baseball, golf, olympic game, motorcycle, billiards, racing, tennis, volleyball and many more to forms physical activity, and Test Screan with host Enrique Gil where live studio audience will serve as an on-camera acting workshop will compete against the clock and complete three levels to win up to P60,000 with their IBC Administrative Services and Personel Department for would-be actors and actresses, young and old alike.

The last segment, called Knock Knock Kumusta which is similar to now-defunct Pera o Bayong, where wall clocks were given out to a lucky household member whose home was posted with a sticker as the final production number for the show started with 50 players answering a series of multiple choice questions (A, B, C, or D), hoping to eliminate all others until one remains.

For sure, there will be viewers who will shift to IBC-13 on the noontime slot but will it affect the ratings of Eat Bulaga! and It's Showtime!. The noontime shows will counter have appeal to a wider audience. Lunch Break is on Philippine TV as its competitors.

The show adds more interesting games that offer bigger prizes for studio contestants as well as the home audience, Lunch Break may just more viewers from ABS-CBN and GMA.

‘Wowowillie’ Raises the Bar in Noontime Shows Starting this Saturday, January 26

January 24, 2013

A three-hour spectacle of fun and prizes awaits viewers as TV5 premieres Willie Revillame's huge noontime comeback, Wowowillie, this Saturday (January 26) from 11:30am to 2:30pm. Coinciding with Kuya Wil's 52nd birthday on Sunday, what awaits audiences is another big TV special showcasing over 70 stars and performers and big prizes to celebrate his return to daytime.

TV5 teams up with Wil Productions in raising the bar in noontime viewing with a new show for Filipinos here and in any of the 79 countries and territories reached by global channel Kapatid TV5. "We're very excited to bring Wowowillie to every household because this is TV5's first daily noontime variety show. The management feels that the Network is ready to field Wowowillie in the noontime slot in our mission to provide our daytime viewers more options," said Perci Intalan, TV5's first vice president for Creative and Entertainment Production.

The charismatic host will be joined by Mariel Rodriguez, Grace Lee, Valerie Concepcion and Camille Villar in the new daily noontime show. Kuya Wil also introduces TV5 princess Arci Munoz, Ava Jugueta of PYT (Pretty Young Thing), sexy comedienne Ethel Booba and show mainstay Lovely Abella to complete the hosts' line-up.

The show introduces new segment formats that will bring fun and excitement to daytime in its new home, the Wowowillie Studio — a 1,100-seater state-of-the-art studio along Quezon Avenue that houses the most advanced equipment for live shows.

Pinoy Explorer host Aga Muhlach and Kidlat lead star Derek Ramsay are expected to appear on Saturday's show. Some of TV5's rising stars, including Ritz Azul, Eula Caballero, Jazz Ocampo, Meg Imperial and Carla Humphries, will also join Artista Academy's Sophie Albert, Vin Abrenica, Chanel Morales, Shaira Mae, Mark Neumann and Akihiro Blanco in the celebration. Kapatid leading men Daniel Matsunaga, Wendell Ramos, JC De Vera, Edgar Allan Guzman, Rainier Castillo, Christian Samson, Onemig Bondoc, Alwyn Uytingco and Martin Escudero with popstar princess Sarah Geronimo will also be present.

Mr. Pure Energy Gary V, soul siren Nina, Yeng Constantino and maestro Ryan Cayabyab are also slated to perform. Black Eyed Peas' Apl.De.Ap, meanwhile, will join Pinoy rock bands Kamikazee and Parokya ni Edgar in one epic number. Vocal powerhouse Side A, Wency Cornejo, Ebe Dancel, Lloyd Umali, Luke Mijares, Brennan, Lou Bonnevie and Basil Valdez will also perform for the studio audience and home viewers alike.

Regine Angeles, Nina Jose, Charee Pineda, Meg Imperial, Mocha Uson, Wendy Valdez, Erika Padilla, Jamilla Obispo, Sexbomb dancers Aira, Jopay, Louise, Che-che and Mia will also raise temperatures alongside several members of the Philippine Azkals.

Meanwhile, stand-up comedians Ate Gay, Le Chaz, Anton, Trizsha, Shawie, Kim Idol and Bonito will share the stage with Empoy, Brod Pete, Tado, Mr. Fu, IC Mendoza, Shalala and The Alabang Housewives Pamela and Vanessa for a comic production number.

Make sure to catch Wowowillie this coming Saturday, January 26, at 11:30am for a show full of fun, laughs, music and prizes only on TV5.

Willie Revillame Goes Noontime, Premieres 'Wowowillie' on January 26

January 16, 2013

Willie Revillame revealed the details on his upcoming noontime show Wowowillie during TV5's trade show on Tuesday, January 15, at the Resorts World Manila's Performing Arts theater.

In its continuing efforts to beef up all-day viewership, the Kapatid Network positions Willie Revillame's new variety game show Wowowillie in the noontime slot starting January 26, from Monday to Friday, 12:30 to 2:30pm and on Saturday, 11:30am to 3:00pm.

TV5 teams up with Wil Productions to raise the bar in noontime viewing with a new show for Filipinos here and abroad. "We're very excited to bring Wowowillie to every household because this is TV5's first daily noontime variety show. The management feels that the Network is ready to field Wowowillie in the noontime slot in our mission to provide more options to our daytime viewers," said Perci Intalan, TV5's First Vice President for Creative and Entertainment Production.

Via a recorded message, Revillame gave a sneak peek on Wowowillie's new studio, its new and exciting games and segments. Two weeks prior to its pilot episode, excitement is already running high for millions of Filipinos who long for Kuya Wil's return to daytime. Kuya Wil dominated Pinoy noontime TV for years until he transferred to TV5 where he changed the shape of primetime with Wil Time Bigtime.

The upcoming daily noontime show will introduce new segment formats that will bring fun and excitement to daytime in its new home, the Wowowillie along TV5 Media Center in Mandaluyong Coty. Once built, the studio is expected to house 1,100 guests coming from different parts of the Philippines with its location that is better accessible to public transportation.

‘Game ‘N Go All Stars’ ups the ante in Sunday noontime viewing fare

January 25, 2013

Game 'N Go All Stars co-hosts Shalani Soledad-Romulo and host Edu Manzano.

While Willie Revillame's Wowowillie is expected to shake up the status quo of noontime entertainment every weekday and Saturday when it finally premieres on January 26, TV5 is not taking Sundays off. The next day, Game N' Go, its game-changing noontime buffet of treats, gets its own spanking new coat of paint.

Now called Game N' Go All Stars, the newly relaunched and slightly reformatted show will now feature Kapatid stars and celebrities as they compete against one another in games that are not only exciting but downright hilarious.

Conceptualized as a combination of a variety show, a game show and comedy sketch, Game N' Go has found its own place and has emerged as a formidable challenger in a time slot while P.O.5 now monopolized by the song and dance equation embraced by competitors ASAP and Party Pilipinas.

The premiere telecast of the newly-reformatted show this Sunday takes the returning Game N' Go gang of Joey de Leon, Edu Manzano, Gelli de Belen, Arnell Ignacio, Daniel Matsunaga, and Shalani Soledad-Romulo in a special remote broadcast at the Recom Multi-Purpose Gymnasium at the Glorietta Sports Complex in Tala, Caloocan City.

Along with an overflowing crowd of residents in the area, the Game N' Go All Stars hosts will be joined by four teams featuring TV5's rising young talents along with the Artista Academy graduates and The Amazing Race Philippines finalists against each other with the network's top comic talents, namely Tuesday Vargas, Long Mejia, Joy Viado, Dominic Ochoa and Shalala as their team captains.

The teams will battle it out in the Game N' Go arena in challenges similar to such famed Hollywood game shows as American Gladiators, Global Guts and Hole In The Wall.

The segment is only one of many new innovations to look forward to even as portions that have become fan favorites such as Singgaling Go and Pritong Pares are retained. No less than Sophie Albert and Vin Abrenica – Artista Academy winners and stars of the new romantic drama, Never Say Goodbye — will literally electrify viewers in Pritong Pares.

Vin Abrenica and Sophie Albert get a jolt during the Pritong Pares segment as co-host Joey de Leon looks on, amused.

Other rollicking games to look forward to in the season premiere are Tumbanggaan and Runtaranta Anak Ng Prutas which will not only put the reflexes of the celebrity guests to a test but will also challenge their abilities to think on their feet.

And then, there are also the GAGA Dancers, who seem to have found their niche and own fan following. Composed of blonde dancers from Australia, Russia and Cuba, these sexy dancers have become part and parcel of the Game N' Go family and should continue to remain staples as Game N' Go All Stars takes the game show concept to a higher level.

Game 'N Go All Stars will premiere January 27, 10:15 a.m. on TV5.

'Happy-er' Weekend on TV5: 'Wowowillie,' 'Game 'N Go All Stars,' 'Avatar' and More!

January 24, 2013

Weekend television will never be the same as TV5 continues its surge for 2013. Tune in to the Kapatid Network as it features more reasons to stay home with the family on Saturdays and Sundays with Wowowillie, Ms. Dawn, Aksyon Weekend, RESCUE5, Game 'N Go All Stars, Untold Stories mula sa Face to Face, Whattamen, P.O.5, Sarah G., Pinoy Explorer and Talentadong Pinoy Junior. On Saturday, January 26, Pinoy viewers will be in for a treat as the ever-lovable Willie Revillame returns to noontime with Wowowillie. A seemingly-unending list of celebrities and performers will join Kuya Wil and the gang on their premiere at 12:00NN rightbefore the first part of the Tagalized version of hit Hollywood blockbuster Avatar.

Ms. Dawn Zulueta return to Kapatid network via a serial drama Ms. Dawn at 4:30PM right after Sabado Sineplex. Onemig Bondoc, Christian Samson and Josh Padilla leader of a new sitcom Whattamen at 7:00PM along with Alex Gonzaga, John Estrada and Janella Salvador, directed by Al Tanay.

Amy Perez host a drama anthology Untold Stories mula sa Face to Face at 7:45PM on Saturdays offering a real-life drama about a stories as featured in Face to Face with Gelli de Belen.

At 11:00PM on Saturdays and 12:30AM on Sundays, Luchi Cruz-Valdez and Raffy Tulfo present the latest news on Aksyon Weekend. The newscast follows NEWS5's commitment of "Higit sa Balita, Aksyon." Catch up on the program's refreshing take on current events, as well as pressing national matters, as the Kapatid Network's firebrand newscast continues on weekends.

TV5's emergency response unit RESCUE5 also strengthens its commitment to public service through a new weekly reality show showing the drama behind saving lives. Hosted by Paolo Bediones, RESCUE5 will also premiere on Saturday (January 26) at 10:00PM. For its pilot episode, RESCUE5 will feature the emergency response team's heart-stopping encounter when a car porter got stuck on a truck after it rammed a flyover. Viewers should also stay tuned to find out what happened to a man who was believed to be cursed with cryptic bumps.

Adventurers and explorers-at-heart can join Pinoy Explorer host Aga Muhlach as he moves to the 9:30AM timeslot on Sunday beginning January 27. This week, catch Aga in a special two-part episode featuring charming Camiguin. Aside from sampling its famous special pastel, the bubbly host will try deep sea diving to see the island's famous giant clams. He will also visit the province's Sunken Cemetery—an underwater graveyard surrounded by an array of colorful corals.

On January 27, the Philippines' favorite Sunday noontime habit takes on a new format with Game 'N Go All Stars. Celebrity guests will compete against each other in a series of blood-pumping games sure to tickle viewers' funny bones. Even with the new games and new segments, viewers can still look forward to Game 'N Go favorites like Pritong Pares and Singgaling Go, as well as the alluring GAGA Dancers. The new wacky Game 'N Go gang host (Joey de Leon, Edu Manzano, Gelli de Belen, Arnell Ignacio, Daniel Matsunaga, and Shalani Soledad-Romulo) opens the new season with celebrity guests like Artista Academy grand winners Sophie Albert and Vin Abrenica, Victor Silayan, Eula Caballero, Nadine Samonte and Ritz Azul.

After Game N Go All Stars, starting at 12:45PM, variety show P.O.5 marks on its 3rd anniversary celebration with host Lucy Torres, Richard Gomez and John Estrada opens the new celebration with co-host popstar princess Sarah Geronimo, Martin Escudero, Meg Imperial, John Prats, Eula Caballero, Onemig Bondoc, Christian Samson, Rico dela Paz, Ritz Azul, Josh Padilla, Jasmine Curtis-Smith, JC De Vera, Janella Salvador, Carla Humphries, Artista Academy winner Vin Abrenica and Sophie Albert, Edgar Allan Guzman, Rainier Castillo, Harry Santos, Morrisette Amon, international singing sensation David

Archuleta, BJ Forbes and Never the Strangers band. Teen drama series Sarah G. at 3:15PM on Sundays, turning one-year in 2013 with pop princess Sarah Geronimo will surely the singing and dancing. Three adorable and talented finalists are set to compete in this season's Talentadong Pinoy Junior Finals also on Sunday. IBC-13, the network war is back, to air new shows on Viva-TV treats

July 2, 2012 - IBC Channel 13, the network war is back announced the launch with Kapinoy network campaign. The station chairman Orly Mercado during the network's press conference last week. Channel 13 is now the strong third TV ratings with major networks ABS-CBN Channel 2 and GMA Channel 7, Mercado said that is still up for privatization this year.

In the case of IBC Channel 13, Mr. Mercado believes it addresses a different market. The three networks is back in the TV ratings which is focus on the masses, with new IBC charaters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ

We need to make the station more viable, Mercado told Inquirer Entertainment in an interview at the IBC-13 office in Broadcast City last week, beefing up our new programming to boost IBC's signal reach nationwide. Mr. Barreiro said that as of June, the network's signal reaches 50% of the country. With our system upgrade, we expect to have full signal coverage by go head-on with those giant networks for the masa audience.

Mr. Mercado said IBC-13 to further strengthen its children's programming, because this has boosted the network's morning and afternoon ratings. Over the past several months, IBC-13 has become the network of choice among children with the highest rating cartoons in both the mornings and the afternoons, he explained.

To further boost its popularity among children, he said a IBC Kids of children's programming will be launched this month for preschool and kids, he said.

On the news front, Ms. Mercado said IBC-13 has committed to provide more airtime for its newscasts from morning, afternoon and late-night. Express Balita, IBC's flagship newscast, will now airs at 4:30 pm slots when the late-night newscast Ronda Trese now airs at 11:30 p.m. slot.

Mr. Mercado also said they have entered into a major tie-up with CNBC. his will enable News Team 13 to deliver the latest news from all over the world in real time to its audience.

IBC-13 is also preparing to relaunch its radio station from dance mix radio iDMZ, which will become the masa 89.1 FM band with its dance music zone as the #1 internet danze mix radio along with provincial Radyo Budyong radio station include DYBQ in Iloilo, DYJJ in Roxas and DYRG in Kalibo, Alkan, new cable TV channel Danze TV and a new UHF news channel called IBC News Network.

He added IBC-13 has always relaunched as Viva-TV, the newest entertainment network of Viva Entertainment which is offering the home of the brigeest and brightest stars and more top-rating entertainment shows is now accessible to the audience and market with their Viva chairman and CEO Vic Del Rosario features original programs that will surely delight fans of Anne Curtis, Sarah Geronimo, KC Concepcion and other top celebrities is now reportedly keen on acquiring the sequestered TV outfit. When local networks were buying from Taiwan and Korean for asianovelas. The new station is really going to be offering fresh, innovative, and relevant content, the print ads and able to catch their plugs on IBC and more Viva-TV programs on IBC as well.

He added that IBC-13 plans to open more TV stations in the coming years to add to the 30 stations that it has in the provinces. The network is also working on its international broadcast to cater to Filipinos based abroad tied up with Pilipinas Global Network, Ltd called international channels IBC Global and Viva-TV Global, which has been available in Europe, Middle East, Canada, North Africa, Japan, Asia, Guam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Europe, Australia and the United States on Dish Network.

This time, the station is relaunching brand-new more Viva-TV programs on IBC-13, a mix of foreign cartoons, Tagalog-dubbed anime and Korean asianovelas that will spice up your TV experience, Mr. Mercado said.

Viva-TV dares Filipinos to their viewing habits

Viva-TV's @Annebishowsa's Anne Curtis, KC.com's KC Concepcion, Who Wants to be a Millionaire's Christopher de Leon and Popstar Diaries' Sarah Geronimo are some of the stars who will bolster the station's chances of competing against the two local network giants. Today, he said the quality of sequestered TV station IBC-13's signal is already better than its bigger rivals ABS-CBN and GMA in the Mega Manila area, where more than half of TV viewers in the country live in a recent press conference.

Hip, fresh and definitely more exciting!

Those words perfectly capture the new look of Channel 13 as its name to Viva-TV indicating the network's desire to reinvent itself and garner a bigger share of the market and TV advertising. Last 14 January 2011, a new set of directors took over IBC Board of Directors. The new Board immediately proceeded to improve the TV network's operation in the ratings like GMA and ABS-CBN.

Two days after the grand press launch held last Thursday, June 27, 2012, at the Trinoma Mall in Quezon City, Viva-TV on IBC publicly introduced its new set of programs via a television special titled Home of the Stars. The boob tube spectacle was taped at the Trinoma Mall in Quezon City and was aired earlier today, June 30, 2012, at exactly 5 p.m. in all IBC provincial stations into the network to ensure that major ABS-CBN and GMA for the top spot in the local broadcasting industry.

Hosting the event were Luis Manzano and Anne Curtis of @Annebishowsa. The young and dynamic team of Viva-TV and their executives, led by Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Jr., were all present to partake in the celebration.

Home of the Stars provided a sneak peek of the network's more new shows that are all set to premiere this week. The source believes with Mr. Mercado at the helm, the network would be able to compete with bigger rivals ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp. and GMA Network, Inc.

The Broadcast City property is the site of the amount will be placed in an escrow account with the Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI) covered by post-dated checks. P450 million to be paid through the construction and delivery of a new six-story corporate building, new live studios and commercial building for IBC studios.

The Quezon City property is a remaining 5,000-square meters corner property along Diliman for GMA and ABS-CBN offered over P5.5 billion for the IBC network with their Viva's local production. "Plans are afoot to put up a new transmitter in Coca Cola plant, San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City and the so-called antenna farm in Quezon City with privatization to build new live studios in Broadcast City," the source said.

The stars came in full force to introduce and talk about their respective shows. Mirroring the newly repositioned network's image, the occasion adopted a variety show format complete with games, dance and song numbers and band performances by Callalily and Protein Shake.

Some of the stars who showed up that evening includes Vhong Navarro, Sarah Geronimo, Richard Gutierrez, Sam Pinto, Onemig Bondoc, James Yap of PBA, Cristine Reyes, Anja Aguilar, Christopher de Leon, Cesar Montano, Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak, Vice Ganda, Aga Muhlach, Nikki Bacolod, Jon Santos, IC Mendoza, Katya Santos and Maui Taylor, Charlie Green, Robin Padilla, KC Concepcion, among many others.

The dance number with the Street Boys drew ooh's and aah's from everyone inside the venue while KC Concepcion's KC.com number wrapped up the evening's presentation.

The official station jingle, "Home of the Stars," composed by Marcus Davis and Amber Davis and performed by Anja Aguilar, like more Viva stars employed by IBC-13, the country's third-biggest TV network including artists.

Viva-TV's overhaul was made possible after the Vic Del Rosario-owned network entered into a long-term block airtime agreement and partnership with Viva Entertainment, right now, we are now a strong No.3, new IBC characters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

The tie-up allowed IBC-13 to boost its programming, which consequently bolstered the network's chances to compete against established network giants GMA-7 and ABS-CBN is getting high marks from the stars.

According to chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Jr., the slogan, "Home of the Stars," mirrors the network's objective of radically altering the public's boxed viewing habits. The young network executive shared that they're here to offer innovative programs to cater to the needs of those who are looking for something different aside from the usual flavor offered especially on the primetime slot.

The entry of a new management in IBC-13, analysts said IBC Board of Directors, Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. could give the network a chance to compete against ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp. and GMA Network Inc. for the top spot in the local broadcasting industry, our plans to beef-up our Viva-TV programming on IBC-13 with the new primetime schedules.

"Our objective is to shake the TV landscape and be able to your viewing habits," said Mr. Rosario in a conversation with PEP (Philippine Entertainment Portal). "Ang maraming tao kasi akala nila Dos, Singko and Siyete, gusto namin 'yong perception mo." According to Mr. Rosario, Channel 13 is handling the engineering side but Viva Entertainment will be providing the content of the TV station. We keep in constant touch with our viewers through Facebook, Twitter and Multiply, he related. During those years, too, I was witness to the growing rivalry between Channel 2 (ABS-CBN), Channel 7 (GMA Network) and Channel 13 (IBC).

A relatively new player in the local television industry, IBC-13 has moved up to the third spot in terms of ratings, trailing behind GMA Network Inc. and Lopez-owned ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp.

In the question and answer portion of the Viva-TV press launch, Mr. Rosario allayed fears that the TV station might be influenced by Malaysian investors. He explained, "IBC-13 is headed by chairman Orly Mercado. Viva Entertainment has simply entered into a block airtime agreement."

The primetime block of rival networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are filled with asianovelas when Viva-TV promises to deliver new shows that veer away from this genre.

"We want to give people an alternative. If we offer people another teleserye, pareho lang kami sa Channel 2 and Channel 7. I think they are serving their market very well but we just want to want to provide an alternative for people who might to watch a teleserye on primetime."

Starting tonight, June 30, Viva-TV now airs free TV network IBC-13 using its brand new 60kw transmitter that cost US2.6 million (about P117 million). This allows Viva-TV to be picked up in areas as far as San Jose, Cabanatuan in the north.

VIVA-TV Channel 13 - Changing The Current TV Landscape

Move over GMA 7 and ABS-CBN, there's a new and refurbished TV station in town on government-sequestered networks IBC-13 which is now surveys the TV ratings with AGB Nielsen Philippines. It is called Viva-TV, the newest entertainment network that will become the home of biggest stars and top-rating Viva-TV more entertainment programs on IBC channel 13, part of Viva Entertainment Group under a management with Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Jr. to make more money, in their purchases viewed by the industry as a network of value in privatization in RPN and IBC, it was decided that IBC-13 would compete head on against the two giants. IBC-13 is now claimed the number 3 spot in the ratings game, next to GMA Network Inc., and ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp, thanks to mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

The sources said the first thing that IBC-13 will do is upgrade broadcasting transmission facilities to strengthen signal so the network's signal would be comparable to that of ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7. "In terms of hours, 40 per cent will be foreign content including cartoons, anime and asianovela, and increase its spread of local programming to 60 per cent," he said.

He also said chairman and CEO for Vic Del Rosario was joining IBC-13 would help in the relaunch of the network in June 30, 2012. "It's true that ABS-CBN and GMA-7 continue to dominate the free TV. We're fully aware of their continuing dominance even before we bought IBC-13. But we have big plans for IBC-13," Rosario said.

New Brews at IBC-13, the Kapinoy network as Viva-TV

(Released on July 7, 2012)

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation, a sequestered radio-television network in Southeast Asia whose flagship IBC-13, the commercial television network in Asia has a dashing new looks these days and competition in Philippine Television. Despite being equipment that has seen better days, IBC-13 will return of its glory days. They seem to be succeeding, if some new program offerings are to be the basis in the broadcast industry in the usual offerings of the Kapamilya and Kapuso Networks in the Philippine television industry growth in listenership and viewership of the new employees.

Almost overnight, showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 and the station that brought to Filipino homes such TV landmarks as Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Pinoy Thriller, TODAS, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Ora Engkantantada, Iskul Bukol, See-True, Mga Kuwento Ni Lola Basyang, Chicks to Chicks and a lot more, metamorphosed threat into the network giants. IBC-13 is now the Kapinoy network for the third network with new IBC jingle, more aggressive and the new moniker introduced with Viva-TV as Home of the Stars sung by newest popstar Anja Aguilar, thanks to Viva chairman and CEO is Vic Del Rosario.

The Viva group is behind much of the new format we hear in the market, with the new IBC management of newest Chairman Orly Mercado along with Eric Canoy, Tessie Taylor and Lito Ocampo Cruz appointed by president Noynoy Aquino administration along with new IBC characters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

IBC-13 as the major TV network will not be sold and it's still up for privatization became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) has malacanang, after all. It is now a strong No.3 in the ratings dominance of giant networks GMA 7 and ABS-CBN will serve in the top spot and the TV stars that will make them rule the number 1 spot to deliver more quality programming.

Viva-TV's new programs on IBC anticipating and hopefully developing loyalty for the newest flagship program Popstar Diaries with popstar princess Sarah Geronimo, Annebishowsa with Anne Curtis and KC.com with KC Concepcion. Their new top 10 countdown of most requested OPM and K-Pop music videos of Daily Top 10 with VJ Sam Pinto. We are indulged with a daily dose of the national pastime, entertainment gossip, courtesy of Dolly Anne's Showbiz Star. There is Sabi Mo Nanay with host AJ Muhlach which we have yet to monitor and a new sitcom, Petrang Kabayo starring unkabogable Vice Ganda and Aga Muhlach and another sitcom Dalawang Busoy with action star Robin Padilla and Philip Salvador. Particularly keen on animated series Winx Club. Sprinkle on the fairy dust with the magical return of the enchanting Winx Club part of the larger Winx franchise. Back at the fanciful Alfea school for fairies, the Wizards of the Black Circle try to abduct Bloom. After a change of heart upon finding out that Bloom is not who they thought she was, the wizards leave Alfea threatening to capture the last fairy on Earth in the children's TV genre. When local networks were buying from Mexico, Taiwan and Korea, Winx Club is the phenomenal animation TV series of Rainbow S.r.l. about the fairy Winx. Starring Stella (the voice of Shy Carlos), Aisha (the voice of Janeena Chan), Musa (the voice of Joanna Morales), Tecna (the voice of Janella Salvador), Flora (the voice of Andi Eigenmann) and Bloom (the voice of Anja Aguilar) are the Winx Club characters along supporting cast Sky (voiced by AJ Muhlach), Brandon (voiced by Josh Padilla), Riven (voiced by DJ Durano), Timmy (voiced by Jerome Ponce), Helia (voiced by Alfred Vargas) and Nabu (voiced by Aki Torio), in timeslot against the dramas GMA's It Started with a Kiss and ABS-CBN's Precious Hearts Romances: Hiyas.

They learn about a new evolved fairy transformation and power called Believix, which can only be accessed when people in a non-magic world (such as Earth) start to truly believe in magic and fairies.

Faragonda also teaches them that there are endless infinite stages of fairy evolution and transformation. The Winx girls and Specialists have to track the Wizards of the Black Circle to Gardenia, Bloom's Earth hometown, and save the last terrestrial Earth fairy, Roxy-the fairy of animals-while trying to get people on Earth to believe in magic once again by helping the Winx Club to touch peoples heart and inner feelings. The Kapinoy network and Viva have struck a golden partnership by providing viewers, chiefly kids just home from school for fairies, a refreshing innovative to early primetime, the Korean dramas and the network's afternoon and late-night newscasts. Catch the phenomenal animated series Winx Club, dubbed in Filipino as fairy-serye, weekdays at 5 pm. From IBC News Tonight to Ronda Trese as the late-night newscast

July 3, 2012

Significant moves have been made by the network to conform to its shift in marketing strategies with sequestered TV station IBC-13 for the No.3 with the dominance of giant networks GMA and ABS-CBN, according to the AGB-Nielsen Media Research. Their new Viva-TV programming on IBC become more aggressive boosted in the surging ahead in the ratings for the TV stars. Under the new management of chairman Orly Mercado along with president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, general manager Eric Canoy, sales and marketing Tessie Taylor and vice president Lito Ocampo Cruz and had the president Noynoy Aquino administration, thanks to the new IBC characters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

The noontime slots are just waiting to be filled up in July 1999, with the noontime show Alas Dose sa Trese, hosted by Eddie Ilarde (of Student Canteen fame) and Boots Anson Roa, president of the network along with Ernani "Jong" Cuenco, Chiqui Roa-Puno, Paco Arespacochaga and Pia Pilapil, to compete with rivals GMA's *Eat Bulaga! and ABS-CBN's *Magandang Tanghali Bayan. Now, occupied by the noontime slots of the educational program Cooltura with Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba, the public service program Nora Mismo with superstar Ms. Nora Aunor and noontime show Lunch Break with Ryan Agoncillo and Joy Viado along with Nicole Anderson, Smokey Manaloto, Bianca Manalo and Enrique Gil. Meanwhile, among the new shows in 2000 that the network has launched is dance show DMZ-TV with host Lara Fabregas and Medwin Marfil along with Rengie Galvez, JC Castro and Tone Wijangco (now with new host Julia Montes and Enrique Gil airs on Sundays to compete with ASAP 2012 and Party Pilipinas), talk show Last Fool Show (now on last episode on June 23, 2012) with host comedian Jun Urbano, Gary Lising and Giselle Sanchez and children show Y2K: Yes to Kids with host Maxene Magalona. With the mass market as its target audience, such a program with new Viva-TV like May Bukas Pa, H2K: Hati-Hating Kapatid, Gags Must Be Crazy, Kagat ng Dilim, Subic Bay, Fastbreak and film programs are Viva Proudly Presents, Now Showing, Viva Premiere Night (now merged as Viva Box Office) and Sinemaks along with anime Akazukin Cha Cha and sports are Milo Sporting World, NBA, PBA, Super Bouts, World Pool Championship and PBA Moments. But perhaps the most telling way with which the network is pursuing its strategies is the manner by which they have altered the delivery of the news with IBC News and Public Affairs. With the news head Zyrene Parsad-Valencia and new public affairs director Mayet Camacho.

Since 1997, IBC News had always delivered daily news broadcasts and hourly news updates in both Filipino and English. In fact, the network's late-night news broadcasts popularly with the most comprehensive news program on Philippine Television called CTN Midnite, with Bernadette Sembrano, Amelyn Veloso, Alice Noel, Anne Marie Soriano and Caren Barhon as the news anchor airs at 12:00 midnight, got all the bases covered with all major stories and late breaking news delivered firsthand. But in summer 1998, IBC has delivered their new flagship news program Express Balita, anchored by Ida Miranda Castro and Anne Marie Soriano which airs at 4:30 pm (in the history is anchor Noli Eala, Precious Hipolito-Castelo, Ali Atienza, Bing Fernando, Jake Morales and Karen Padilla) and IBC Balita Ngayon with Alice Noel, Manuel Llige and Noli Eala which is airs at 11:30 pm instead of midnight slots. It is the two of flagship news program which airs right before and after the VTV block to provide the sports news with Vintage Sports.

In August 2000 during the Homecoming sa Trese, introduced the late-night newscasts Ronda Trese with anchor Ida Miranda Castro and Elmer Mercado airs at 11:00 pm, right after the Viva-TV block. But in 2002, it was another late-night IBC News Tonight with anchors Anthony Pangilinan in 2002, Noli Eala in 2003, Dennis Principe in 2004, Gina Dela Vega-Cruz in 2006, Joeie Guilas in 2007 with segment host of Rida Reyes and Thea Gavino, and Atty. Zorah Andam in 2009.

Now, in an era when news reports are mainly delivered in Filipino as the news organization IBC News and Public Affairs, IBC news programs are definitely an anachronism. People expected the flagship Express Balita in afternoon slot is answer to 24 Oras and TV Patrol in primetime slot. As the longest-running flagship news program Express Balita with new anchors Snooky Serna and Noli Eala now airs at 4:30 pm with simulcast on UHF news channel IBC News Network, with the day's top stories (Ulo ng mga Balita), politics, malacanang, metro news (Metro Balita), feature stories (Balita Atbp. reported by Chin-Chin Gutierrez), global news (Ulat Internasyonal), regional news (Balitang Promdi), CCTV reports (Ulat CCTV), public service (Lingkod Kapinoy with anchor Snooky Serna) for IBC Foundation, peso-dollar exchange, citizen journalism (I-Balita Ako), business news (Negosyo Atbp.), weather updates (Ulat Panahon with weather forecaster Jeff Arcilla), sports news (Sports Page) and entertainment news (Express Showbiz with teen star Kathryn Bernardo).

Last 2011, the news programs are the comprehensive journalism, with the new Ronda Trese being the heir to IBC News Tonight. The late-night newscast is now with new anchors veteran broadcasters Robert Tan, Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba and new reporter Ralf Rivas now airs at 11:30 pm with simulcast also on IBC News Network and would compete with the late-night news programs of ABS-CBN and GMA-7. With new segments of top stories (Pangunahing Balita), police reports (Presinto 13), business news (Malayang Kalakalan), opinion for daily segment (Pulsong Pinoy reported by Zyrene Parsad-Valencia), malacanang, citizen journalism (I-Balita Ako), peso-dollar exchange, CCTV reports (Huli ng CCTV), weather report (Daloy ng Panahon) and sports news (Palaro Hotline). People expected the late-night newscast Ronda Trese to be IBC-13's answer to Saksi and Bandila, both talents of the rival networks to anchor the broadcast.

Currently, network executives are developing other news and public affairs programs. A popular television and radio anchor will be launching his own show on Channel 13. They are also talking with the host of similar programs news and public affairs programs, some of whom are considering transferring to IBC-13.

IBC's 53rd anniversary show airs this January 5

January 4, 2013

IBC-13 is a sequestered local Philippine commercial television station which is celebrating their 53rd years in business by the Philippine government.

In 1960, is it a first Channel 13 camera for news and began in 1961 as Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the tri-media conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by Andres Soriano. The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao. In the 1970s, IBC launches the color transmission named Vinta Color named after the Vintas from Zamboanga, the third network in the Philippines to convert to all-color broadcasts. Dick Baldwin was the station's first owner, and programming first consisted of mostly foreign programs from CBS, and a few local shows. In 1975, Inter-Island 13 was renamed Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) and moved to the Benedicto Group of Companies. IBC moved to its present site in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Q.C. in 1977. Ten years later, it was taken over by the PCGG.

Tonight at 9:30 p.m., IBC-13 presents its 53rd anniversary show is Homecoming sa 13: Kapinoy Pasasalamat Concert featuring former IBC stars like Tito Sotto, Joey De Leon and box-office king Vic Sotto (Iskul Bukol), Freddie Webb, Nova Villa and Carmi Martin (Chicks to Chicks), Joe Quirino (Seeing Stars with JQ), Maribeth Bichara, Val Sotto, Jimmy Santos and Freida Fonda (TODAS), Johnny Weismuller (Tarzan), Inday Badiday (See-True), megastar Sharon Cuneta and Ms. Helen Gamboa (CUTE: Call Us Two For Entertainment), actor Jimmy Fabregas and Ces Quesada (Sic O'Clock News), Ronald Remy, Tess Limcaco and Tommy Oppus (Lucky 13), Charito Solis and Alice Dixon (Okey Ka Fairy Ko!), Imee Marcos and co-host Martin Oppus (Kulit Bulilit) and diamond star Ms. Maricel Soriano (Maricel Live). The concert was taped as live at the Aliw Theater and will be shown tonight at 9:30 p.m. on Viva Box Office this Saturday. As of now, is IBC-13 still the no.3 TV Network in the Philippines.

IBC is set to regain and reclaim its place in the broadcast industry as a government station, unless in its new configuration, new investors may find it now a more interesting buy. The financial muscle to face Channels 2 and 7 head on, Homecoming sa 13 opened with a certified singing champion Ms. Anja Aguilar who is now recognized her home network has successfully defined a part of her career. Recognizing the mascot of KapinoyLand, not only as an IBC children's programming but as the kids fare that defined local TV series, was the driving force behind Homecoming sa 13. So when IBC characters Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, Radiogirl and Newspaperboy started the opening of the musical from singing and dancing, it was all entertainment from there held at the Aliw Theater last Tuesday night from supervisors, directors, managers, talents, and other employees.

The guest performers were Miguel Aguila, Xyriel Manabat, AJ Muhlach, Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, Jerome Ponce and Janella Salvador, Ella Cruz, Angeline Quinto, Bryan Termulo, Dingdong Avanzado, Kathryn Bernardo and Marvin Agustin, with the girl group M.I.L.K and the Street Boys from the face on camera at the expense of some homegrown IBC talents.

"Homegrown on IBC," Orly Mercado, the network's chairman, Eric Canoy, a network's new owner and Lito Ocampo Cruz, the network's vice-president, said in a speech. He cited as the classics like Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Pinoy Thriller, Iskul Bukol, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, See-True, Mga Kuwento Ni Lola Basyang, among others.

What's more important is what the viewers can expect from IBC-13 in the upcoming days. "We will continue with what we have now with our Viva-TV programs on primetime block from 5:00pm-12:00mn where the PBA games are shown. Now the undisputed No.3 TV Network in the Philippines behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA 7, thanks to IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa.

And now IBC-13 have a Viva's local production for the topping ratings. The networks faithfully followed the woes and victories of phenomenal animated series Winx Club, action-crime fighting Totally Spies! and the most refreshing Pop Pixie which is dubbed the Tagalized. A new anime series like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin. Plus, important Mexican telenovelas Teresa and Mar de Amor as well as the imported Korean dramas My Daughter the Flower, Wife Returns and Pretty Young Woman within a Tagalized Korean reality show 2NE1-

TV and K-Pop Star Hunt along with Viva Films for a local blockbuster movies where shown on Channel 13.

Viva-TV has also kept its viewers updated by bringing into local television for a hit shows like primetime teleserye Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy, and teen drama anthology Dear Heart. Also, brought to you with the popular and top-rating game show like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, and the talent search Born to be a Star. Within a popular local and international sports events like Donaire Flashback for a boxing fans of Nonito Donaire, World Open 10-Ball Championship for a billiards and the PBA Games for a basketball fans.

Lunch Break on Thursday, January 3 will be a musical one with home-grown talents from our home station, channel 13 and "friends." The IBC talents in Lunch Break's Salute to IBC Kapinoy's 53rd Anniversary Year are Zyrene Parsad-Valencia who heads the station's news and public affairs department, homegrown female newscaster Snooky Serna, male news anchor Robert Tan and reporter Ralf Rivas. Along with other news and public affairs anchors, they will host the shows different segments and will have one surprise number.

IBC-13 field reinvigorated program slate

October 3, 2012

That's what new sequestered TV station IBC-13 owner Eric Canoy said one years ago for its privatization. His expansion to his staffers was resoundingly validated branding for the Kapinoy network recently, when IBC won as best TV station in the 2012 PMPC Star Awards.

IBC-13's victory over bigger No.3 TV networks has heartened the major players to similarly aim for quality in their own Asian markets as well as mass-based level with Kapinoy programming, the A-B-C plus market, they're more after the C-D-E market. Also have a network monicker, like ABS-CBN's Kapamilya and GMA's Kapuso.

True innovatives

To celebrate, IBC has unveiled and revealed a reinvigorated program slate of new children's programming, entertainment and news and public affairs programs, for viewers looking for formula program formats, just like the country's two giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA, Canoy said they are now a strong number 3.

The new lineup of shows includes the newst children's programs KapinoyLand, hosted by Mr. Kapinoy is the leader of IBC mascots; a showbiz-oriented talk show Showbiz Star, hosted by Dolly Anne Carvajal; new noontime comedy series Kaya ni Mister, Bida si Misis starring Manilyn Reynes and Bobby Yan, directed by Jeffrey Jeturian; police beat from crime in Crime ng Bayan, hosted by Noli Eala; lessons learned from adversity in new investigative program Survival Istorya, hosted by Robert Tan; a late-night talk show Noel @ Late Nite with host Noel Trinidad introduces the musical performances as he proceeds to his desk and his guest interview.

Sesame Street, Art Attack and Cabbage Patch Kids are the new roster of American children's programming as well as new teaching kid show Eskwela Bulilit, is hosted by Pat Natividad and child wonder Sharlene San Pedro tackle developing child-parent storytelling session and other kid-friendly features; Snooky Serna's public service program Snooky and Top 10 Movie Trailers of the Week from the Hollywood movie trailers.

Alongside new Kapinoy shows, the network's fresh infusion of new Viva-TV shows includes the favorite animated series Winx Club, Totally Spies! and Pop Pixie and the first-ever Mexican telenovelas María Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor plus new Korean drama screening like Wife Returns, Romance Town and I Need Romance. New local shows from Viva like soap-opera teleserye Esperanza starring Cristine Reyes and 5 Girls and Daddy starring AJ Muhlach and Xyriel Manabat; and teen drama anthology Dear Heart starring a certified singing champion Anja Aguilar, plus within a new comedy shows capital like Petra's Pannest with YouTube sensation Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak and The Jon Santos Show hosted by comedian Jon Santos. Also, will get you the inside Asia's hottest talent search to show you K-Pop Star Hunt from Korean pop music.

Of course, Viva-TV's high-rating shows including phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? with Christopher de Leon and The Weakest Link with Edu Manzano; and the talent search Born to Be a Star with host a certified singing champion and powerhouse singer Anja Aguilar. Viva-TV also telecast the PBA games, and also the new boxing fans The Main Event and Donaire Flashback. Another first, new billiards World Open 10-Ball Championship this month on IBC.

These new shows, we've caught KSP: Kapinoy Sunday Party, and can share these notes on the program. Hosted by Nicole Hyala and Chris Tsuper with director of Louie Ignacio, the Sunday variety show will guest performers.

Thursday nights at midnight, Survival Istorya is hosted by news-anchor-turned-action-man Robert Tan is packed with action, suspense and real-life drama provides viewers with up-to-the-minute informs and useful survival tips when meeting with investigation disasters.

Friday nights at midnight, Pulsong Pinoy, the 30-minute program of President Noynoy Aquino III. It focuses on the activities, programs, pronouncements, policies and advocacies of the Chief Executive and his Cabinet members in collaboration with various line agencies. The show produced by Presidential Broadcast Staff Radio-Television Malacanang (RTVM) and aired on 3 government-owned network: PTV-4, RPN-9 and IBC-13.

The program is for 2011 Anak TV Seal Awards for Best Public Affairs Program is hosted by News Team 13 head Ms. Zyrene Parsad-Valencia and showcases the following segments: Kontri Ko sa Country Ko, focuses on the success stories of civic organizations/NGOs/youth groups recognized or awarded by the government, Lider, introduces a Cabinet secretary, a government official or any agency focusing more on their duties and responsibilities and as program managers, Salaysay ng Lahi, Showcases the traditions, festivities, arts and culture that describe the Filipino way of life, IsYou, features current events presented in factual information understandable to the viewers in a span of a minute, Sked ng Pangulo, briefly highlights the most important events and meetings that the President attended and Heads Up! Para Kay Boss, features flagship projects and government-funded programs that help uplift the lives of the Filipinos.

Recently for the late-night public affairs programs which airs weeknights starting at 12 mn: Linawin Natin on Monday nights, Good Take on Tuesday nights, CNB: Crime ng Bayan on Wednesday nights, Survival Istorya on Thursday nights and Pulsong Pinoy on Friday nights at 12 mn in the late-night slots right after IBC's late night newscast Ronda Trese or Ronda 13.

Anchored by veteran broadcasters Robert Tan, Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba and news reporter Ralf Rivas, Ronda 13 airs every weeknight at 11:30 p.m.

"The national late-night newscast goes serves up beyond the comprehensive journalism of news delivery. It offers a perspective on the day's important news and even outlines solutions that seek to alleviate pressing concerns in 24-hour surveillance," Ms. Parsad-Valencia said.

"As Filipinos grow tired and weary of news and political deadlock will be disclosed, RONDA 13 will aim to deliver top stories of comprehensive finding ways to better their lives and impact on the lives of others through reports gathered by IBC News reporters and correspondents," she added. The rival late-night newscast directly compete with GMA's Saksi and ABS-CBN's Bandila lies in the delivery of the news. Deliver of local and international news from top stories, politics, police report, malacanang, opinion, citizen journalism, CCTV reports, sports news, weather report and business news as the most credible late-night newscast.

Chito Cabatuando, a director for Express Balita and Ronda Trese, Nick Mendoza, a news desk officer, Mayet Camacho, a public affairs director, Ms. Victoria Batacan, a news director and Lilliam Mateo, a make-up artist for the news programs has printers and imaging devices, and Lilliam Mateo as IBC make-up artist for news. Snooky Serna host a newest midnight talk show called Snooky every Saturday at 12:45 a.m., that brings the wide gamut of experiences from broadcasting, show business and advocacy to her personal real-life dramas in one insightful, delightful and novel TV entrant mirroring the host's distinct character.

Meanwhile, IBC's flagship news program Express Balita, bannered by Snooky Serna and Noli Eala, has found a TV ratings against with Faithfully (Ch. 7) and PBB Uber 2012 (Ch. 2) that makes it more competitive their remains fast-paced, in-depth, straightforward, unbiased and varied alongside the usual fare of dramas aired on the same 4:30 p.m. time slot by other TV networks and the report by saying that with the new printers and scanner, one could now beat more headlines given to the newscast, social media campaign, and commercial breaks (from public service announcements, one commercial spot and TV plugs) for advertisers.

Standing in the new set of IBC news room, opened the newscast before OBB, Snooky Serna is "Magandang hapon pilipinas, Ako po si Snooky Serna," she said. Noli Eala is "Ako naman si Noli Eala, ito ang IBC Express Balita sa hapon ito," he said. And closed the newscast, Serna is "At dyan po ang pinakahuling balita nakalap ng IBC News and Public Affairs, Ako po si Snooky Serna" and Eala is "Ako naman po si Noli Eala, Hangang bukas alas-4:30 ng hapon dito lang sa IBC-13" and Serna "Maraming Salamat, Ang ating inyong pagsubaybay" will sitting on a desk and standing up (during opening before OBB and closing) that looking to teleprompter to read the latest headlines.

Based on the year-on-year index culled from Nielsen Media Research, IBC-13 claims that EXPRESS BALITA was able to triple its mass viewership to more than 1.3 million viewers last year, compared to its viewership levels in 2011. EXPRESS BALITA delivers both local and global news with its top stories, business, public service, politics, weather, entertainment and sports.

IBC-13 said the program has already attracted about 1.1 million viewers as of last month.

"The way I see it, we now have a bigger place for news because our audience believes that we deliver more than what we promise. Our thrust has evolved to a call to remain vigilant and informed, and help for the entertainment news with Viva Entertainment and provide the sports news with Viva Sports," Ms. Parsad-Valencia explained.

Express Balita airs Mondays to Fridays at 4:30 p.m. and IBC's public service program Makabayang Duktor hosted by Dr. Willie Ong and Dra. Liza Ong airs on Saturdays at 6 a.m., celebrate on its 7 years started our MD Foundation tandem inside their Boy's Van out on mission of house visits to those in need of medical attention.

"Throughout their respective careers, Dr. Willie and Liza cemented a very strong health image and visit the poorest areas of Manila and give free medical services, free medicines, and long-term follow-up to the poor and the sick," Ms. Parsad-Valencia said.

"Dr. Willie and Liza continue to the show was conceptualized by their TV mentor Boy Abunda who also acts as their creative consultant. Viewers will see them the doctors will tackle the medical problems faced by short people afflicted with dwarfism head on," she added. Meanwhile, a public service program called Nora Mismo airs weekdays at 11 a.m., with host superstar Ms. Nora Aunor.

Come weekend, news continue with the weekend edition of Express Balita with some of IBC News' seasoned anchors on Saturdays and Sundays right after Viva-TV owned and operated by Viva Entertainment.

Since its inception years ago, IBC News and Public Affairs, the news and public affairs arm of IBC-13 -- has aimed to raise the bar in broadcasting by introducing many firsts in broadcast journalism and public service.

IBC News also pioneered the most advanced weather news delivery in the country through IBC Weather Central, a leading provider of weather graphics presentation system using touchscreen video wall.

Anja Aguilar to host her own show on IBC-13

September 24, 2012

A certified singing champion Anja Aguilar will now host her own show on the Kapinoy network IBC-13. Patterned after the internationally famous program Born to be a Star is the newest addition to the line-up of Viva-TV's fast-growing lineup of top-rating shows that includes game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link. The program is expected to open doors for aspiring talented artists with a singing contest.

We will enhance their new talents and help them perform better, like padadamitan, palalagyan ng make-up, kung kailangan ng back-up singers or dancers o di kaya'y puwedeng mas pagandahin pa ang kanilang areglo o arrangement, we will help them do that," Anja explained yesterday at a presscon held at Viva-TV which is producing the show to become the next Born to be a Star

Announced as Viva-TV's host for its newest franchised TV show, the Born to be a Star format is the latest creation of worldwide production company Endemol. It is a proven international primetime ratings hit, with the show scoring a large percentage of the audience share in the United States and America for the future superstar.

Born to be a Star, the latest host to Anja's lap this September, will start airing in September 30 on IBC 13. Born to be a Star is a smash hit creation of Mentorn International, the global production and distribution production company Endemol. The contest gives talented artists from 12 years old up a chance to display their creative flairs like their favorite stars for one night. Once chosen, they will be given makeovers, musical arrangements, back-up dancers if needed in their performances. They will also have a chance to sing with Anja Aguilar. The price at stake is a whopping one million pesos worth of cash and prizes.

A singing champion noted it was a case of deja vu for her, as she recalled that she herself started her singing career in Little Big Star on ABS-CBN. For Anja, hosting this kind of show would mean being able to help new singers on their road to fame and fortune, payback time for her. The network signed a contract with Endemol to gain rights of its franchise of Born to be a Star.

"I'd like others to get the kind of breaks that helped me get started as a singer. This is my chance to help and I'm sure that we will find a new stars in the show," Anja averred.

Born to be a Star, the American television newest sensation will be seen on IBC-13 with its local version hosted by Anja Aguilar this September 30 every Sunday.

The talent and see the stars. Born to be a Star, American Television's newest sensation will soon be here in the Philippines. Viva bought the franchise (like the The Weakest Link and Who Wants to be a Millionaire?). It will be hosted by Anja Aguilar.

Vic del Rosario as the chairman and CEO, whose Viva Group of Companies is involved in movies, television, video, recording, cable channels, international pictures, interactive and live concerts. It has a earning huge success, Viva-TV is the strategy now have programs on IBC-13 which promptly copied by the Kapinoy programming who aired more and more Mexican and Korean soaps. It was followed by Japanese animes and cartoons dubbed into Filipino as well as the sports events including the PBA. Alongside they feature Winx Club and Totally Spies!, my absolute favorite animated series, they have a line-up of shows that interest all kinds of people. Pop Pixie is popular with those who have an interest in kids.

Anja now joins the new company of Christopher de Leon of Who Wants to be a Millionaire and Edu Manzano of The Weakest Link as star hosts of Viva-TV shows. She having been chosen to host Born to be a Star, Anja said. It is recalled that Anja herself started her singing career via a local talent show Little Big Star on ABS-CBN, hosted by popstar princess Sarah Geronimo.

The crisis in the recording and movie industry has diminished the power and profits of Boss Vic's formidable entertainment empire. Although still a force in the music recording, film production and distribution business, VIVA's fortunes have been kept alive by its investment in television programming on IBC 13's primetime block. Del Rosario has shown that he's still a major player with a local drama series such as soap-opera teleserye like Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy, and teen drama anthology Dear Heart, and with a number of bankable hits like the first million-peso prize game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, and the million-peso prize talent search Born to be a Star, they helped IBC 13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings. By acquiring Vintage Sports, VIVA has also become the country's premier sports content provider with the basketball league Philippine Basketball Association (PBA).

Born to be a Star happy with Philippine ratings

January 7, 2013

Viva-TV is beefing up its promotion of Born to be a Star by featuring Globe Prepaid is the #1 in Postpaid. In an interview with Manila Bulletin, Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Perci Intalan stated that the network is very happy with the above-average ratings of Born to be a Star's New Year episode on IBC-13, the Filipino edition of the newest sensation to come out of American television from Endemol.

"Ako ang first Born to be a Star", while host a certified singing champion and powerhouse singer Ms. Anja Aguilar waits for auditioneers to the talent competition in a Top 12 finalist. Besides that P1 million prize money to winners receive, cloth them all the biggest names in the field of Philippine design.

The independent AGB survey revealed that Born to be a Star in at 28.8 points against GMA-7's Kapuso Mo, Jessica Soho with 26.4 percent and ABS-CBN's Sarah G Live! with 14.7 percent.

In their garments, even given the confidence of the Top 12 finalist were PJ Gonzales (Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For You), Jea Reyes (Forever's Not Enough), Rafael Ignacio (Dance with Me - Orleans), Bratriz Munoz (Crazy For You - Madonna), Reymond Sajor (Goodbye - Air Supply), Chivas Anton Malunda (Wish - Donna Cruz), Ninay Lescano (Part of Your World), Ysrael Carreon (Hard to Say I'm Sorry - Chicago), Kevin Montallana (I Will Be Here For You - Michael W. Smith), Camille Cortez (Rolling in the Deep - Adele), Gemma Fitzgerald (Reflection - Cristina Aguilera) and Gregg Santos (Just So You Know - Jesse McCartney) to perform in a production number.

Born to be a Star being shown often on Viva-TV programs on IBC like PBA, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, as well as its news programs Express Balita and Ronda Trese.

That's a reminder to all their Born to be a Star fans to watch Viva-TV on IBC more often as the popular talent search.

Millionaire is back on Viva-TV

MANILA, Philippines - The millionaire fever is back on Viva-TV. Beginning on February 25, 2012, Saturday, the world's most popular high-rating game show is taking the Philippines by storm once more. Hosted by Christopher de Leon, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" is back with the new season loaded with exciting additional lifelines, updated set technology, and the chance for a lucky player to become 2 million pesos richer. The Viva-TV production is the Philippine franchise of the British quiz show of the same title. On Saturday nights at 8:30 p.m. slots against with ABS-CBN's TV Patrol Weekend and GMA's Kapuso Mo, Jessica Soho.

"As we enter our new season, we promise the viewers that we double the fun, excitement, and tension in the seventh season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" That's our final answer," said De Leon. To date, the game show has already given away more than P13 million in total prizes in its six-season run. For the initial episodes of the all-new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" smart kids could be a few questions away to become young millionaires as the tension-filled game show features honor students recommended by their schools to get this once-in-a-lifetime chance to win P2 million. On top of the jackpot that will be split to the kid player and his/her respective school, win or lose, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" will award all the kid players college scholarships.

The overnight-millionaire dream is alive once again as Filipinos take their chance to defy the pressure from the hot seat for P2 million jackpot. To help the player along the way, the hot seat contestant can use lifelines available. Aside from pre-existing 50-50 and Phone-A-Friend lifelines, the new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" introduces added lifelines that will make the game even more exciting:

People Speak and Switch. Through People Speak, the studio audience who answers correctly will have the chance to win up to P20,000. The Switch lifeline, meanwhile, entitles the contestant to switch out the original question for another question of the same value.

The game show that pioneered the craze over game shows on Philippine TV after returned in May 2009 via its new home TV5 and return on IBC-13 in February 25, 2012. For the last decade since its debut in the UK in 1998, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" has dominated the ratings game around the globe with international versions spawning in over a hundred countries, including its top-rating Philippine version.

While the elimination of players in the past was through Fastest Finger First round done in the studio, hot seat hopefuls this time will be selected through mall auditions. To register in the mall editions, text MILLION (space) Name/Age/Gender/Address to 2256 (Example: MILLION Mark Sy/21/M/12 Leo St., Quezon City). Each text costs P2.50 for Smart and Globe subscribers, and P2.00 for Sun Cellular subscribers.

Don't miss the new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" starting on February 25, Saturday, 8:30pm on Viva-TV on IBC.

Viva-TV shows topped Sunday primetime on September 30 at IBC

September 29, 2012

Boosted by the formidable program Sunday hit shows lineup of popstar Anja Aguilar's Dear Heart (2:30pm), Ashley Rivera's Petra's Panniest (3:30pm), PBA 2012 Season (4:00pm), Born to be a Star (8:30pm), Christopher de Leon's Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? (9:30pm) and action-packed Sinemaks (10:30pm), Viva-TV's Sunday primetime block on IBC as the Kapinoy network continues to raise the bar in offering shows that highlight entertainment Pinoy pride as teen drama, comedy, sports, talent search, games and action movies.

Starting 2:30pm on September 30, kicks off with teen drama anthology series Dear Heart starring newest popstar Anja Aguilar in a youthful tale for the singing champion along with new mom diamond star Maricel Soriano and new dad AJ Muhlach, with director Monti Parungao, to be followed by comedy show Petra's Panniest at 3:30pm with host YouTube sensation Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak presents a round-up of the funniest movie scenes and online videos with irreverent annotation as only Petra can deliver will now have a one of guest co-host.

Afterwards at 4:00pm, the PBA 2013 Season kicks off in spectacular fashion today at Smart Araneta Coliseum. And as usual, Filipino basketball fans can expect yet another thrilling season as the league's 10 teams battle for supremacy, with the opening ceremonies airing live on IBC-13 hopes to attract more fans with this season's exciting line up of teams and players. The league returns from a season marked by box-office receipts and high viewership ratings. This coming season, the PBA encourages even more game aficionados to support their teams by attending live games or watching them at home as well as topped with live performances from Viva stars during halftime Sunday. The league envisions more vocal fans rooting for their favorite teams and players in line with its slogan, "Kampihan Na!" like all PBA fans, we are very excited to start a brand new PBA season.

Meanwhile at 8:30pm, Viva TV will relaunch the new talent search show Born to be a Star. One of the big deals related to the show is the fact that its host is singing star Anja Aguilar, who got her own start in showbiz years ago when she topped another TV talent show Little Big Star on ABS-CBN. Another big deal is the fact that, on "Star for A Night," contestants won't simply open their mouths, take a deep breath, and sing. The program will showcase each talent in the best possible light, with costuming, styling, coaching, production values-and, perhaps best of all, detailed critiques of their performance by the show's judges. This is a welcome touch that should add a lot of polish and pizzaz to the contestants' numbers, so that both judges and viewers can more productively evaluate their star potential. We hope that singing stars will really emerge from among the contestants who join this contest. We have other talent-search shows on the tube but, for some reason, practically none of their winners have hit it big as singers in recent years, for some of the young talents that will be discovered on Viva TV's new talent show. The prize is a talent management contract with Viva Artist Agency.

Crowd favorite game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? at 9:30pm, based on the original British format, contestants from all over the Philippines will compete to get on the "hot seat." All they need to do is answer 15 multiple-choice questions correctly to bag the seven-digit jackpot. WWTBAM is a general knowledge game show full of challenges and suspense on the road to its PhP2 Million cash prize. is hosted by Christopher de Leon quick wit and funny antics will once again make the program entertaining for the entire family. Now on its ninth season, the first full month run will feature smart and charming kids eager to claim victory.

Then at 10:30pm, the action-packed Sinemaks as the exciting Viva action blockbuster movies offering viewers featuring local action movies are Hitman starring Sam Pinto, Minsan Pa starring Sharon Cuneta and PFJ, Ben Delubyo starring Bong Revilla, Hindi Pa Tapos ang Laban starring FPJ and Esend ng Tondo starring FPJ on September this month.

Catch every Sunday with Dear Heart at 2:30pm, Petra's Panniext at 3:30pm, The PBA 2013 Season at 4:00pm, Born to be a Star at 8:30pm, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? at 9:30pm, and Sinemaks at 10:30pm only on the Kapinoy network IBC-13.

The television network owned by Eric Canoy is gearing up for competition, lining up new shows in its prime-time slots from the bandwagon of fantasy and soap operas.

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation Channel 13 (IBC-13), now trailing behind GMA Network, Inc. and ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp., IBC has a blocktiemr with Viva Entertainment signed a contract with Televisa to air a new Mexican soap operas, bring the Philippines a taste of Mexican telenovelas, Mexico's movie and television industry at the time. Moreover, the new president, Noynoy Aquino III, may try to limit government-controlled stations like IBC-13 in their purchases of Kapinoy programs.

The popular telenovelas of Viva-TV such as Carita de Angel, Por Un Beso, Siempre Te Amare, María del Cielo and Natalia. Now, will bring back a new popular hit Mexico telenovelas for the first time in fans if the genre with a new popular telenovela like María Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor. The partnership with Viva Entertainment is on IBC-13 to start a totally new trend in television with the introduction of the Mexican program," Mr. Rosario said.

Televisa secured the rights to bring the series to the Philippines, while IBC-13 will market the program. Under the deal, the two companies will share in the advertising revenues. Rosario revealed that IBC-13 was positioning itself as a Kapinoy program provider that could provide a wide range of programs, not only telenovelas and asianovelas but also television programs had the local telecast of a new and explosive drama series.

Every weeknights at 2 p.m., new daytime Mexico telenovela called Teresa. Starring Angelique Boyer as Teresa Chávez Aguirre with Aarón Díaz, Sebastián Rulli, and Ana Brenda Contreras in co-starring roles. Teresa is a remake of the 1959 telenovela of the same name starring Maricruz Olivier. Another version was also made in 1989 with the same name starring Salma Hayek. Teresa Chavez is a young woman dominated by her greed.

Mar de Amor, a romantic-drama for Estrella (Zuria Vega), life is like the sea, full of danger and evil. But the sea also fights and moves forward. In her fondness for study, Estrella learned to read, and through books knew love. She begins to fall for the famous writer, Victor Manuel Galindez (Mario Cimarro), this telenovela is expected to entertain the Filipino viewers will be shown on weeknights at 10:30 p.m. With its stars like Zuria Vega as For Estrella and Mario Cimarro as Victor Manuel Galindez.

From Monday to Friday at 10:30 p.m., Fernando Carrillo is back with new telenovela María Isabel. María Isabel (Adela Noriega) is a beautiful, kind-hearted young woman of indigenous descent, faced with the responsibility of raising Rosa Isela, the orphaned daughter of her only true friend who has died. She finds employment at the home of Ricardo Mendiola (Fernando Carrillo), a wealthy widower hopes to visit the Philippines again and do films and soap, and also even recording. Well, Fernando Carillo has joined Viva Artists Agency for commitments in the Philippines, to be personally managed by big boss Vic del Rosario and music producer-promoter Christian de Walden. The three met and signed the contract in Los Angeles, California, where Señor Carillo is based. He makes movies and continues to appear on television in Hollywood. He has many fond memories of the Philippines, having visited Manila in the '90s and keeping in touch with his fans.

IBC-13, because most of the good Viva-TV's Tagalized foreign shows are there, like animated series Winx Club, Totally Spies!, Pop Pixie and Barbie, anime series like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan, Kirarin, new Korean reality show like K-Pop Star Hunt and 2NE1-TV, Korean asianovelas Romance Town, I Need Romance, Wife Returns, etc, also from the middle class as well. The show will target the B, C and D markets. Primetime soaps teleserye including Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy and teen drama anthology Dear Heart have the biggest potential in the international market at this point, he said.

This is something new, especially since Filipino viewers are so used to watching soap series in Mexican, Korean and Taiwanese, he said. Mr. Rosario said the partnership is unfazed with competition as wants to start a new trend in television programming. Despite a decline in telenovela viewership, María

Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor, now is No.1 in the ratings and has generated more advertising in its first week. I like Filipino, Mexican and Korean soap operas that are shown from other networks. Eventually Viva-TV became a huge success on IBC, Televisa plans to import a romance telenovela from Mexico once again, it has been the Asian market of the Mexican soap operas. IBC-13, a relatively new player in the local television industry has the third spot in terms of ratings, trailing behind the two other giant networks.

Senators slam RPN-9 for not paying employees

Updated November 27, 2012 - 12:00am

MANILA, Philippines - Senate President Pro Tempore Jinggoy Estrada and Sen. Panfilo Lacson raised concerns yesterday over the failure of the government to fully compensate some employees of the defunct RPN-9 television, this time is Kapinoy network IBC-13.

Estrada and Lacson questioned the officials of the Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO) under Secretary Herminio Coloma, who was defending their P1.312-billion budget for next year before the Senate.

Speaking through finance committee chairman Sen. Franklin Drilon, PCOO executives explained that there were 213 RPN employees were served notices of retrenchment through the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) on Oct. 1.

"It is basically a retrenchment due to the continued financial losses incurred," Drilon explained.

According to Drilon, PTV-4 and RPN-9 are not making money compared to another government television station, IBC-13 will now making number 3 position, which was able to the programming contract enter a blocktime agreement with Viva Entertainment, generating around P100 million in revenue for this year. Drilon, however, explained that out of the 213 RPN employees, about half have accepted termination benefits. "They were informed. It was a very difficult decision to make, but given the financial condition of RPN-9, there was really no choice but to undertake a retrenchment program," Drilon said.

Congress to review IBC-13, RPN-9 franchises

December 7, 2012

The House of Representatives will review the status of two government television stations to determine whether they violated their franchises.

Rep. Giorgidi Aggabao, principal author of the House Resolution No. 2854 which seeks the probe, said the two networks in question has entered into an agreement with several companies.

Aggabao further noted that Kitchie Benedicto, daughter of Roberto Benedicto an alleged Marcos crony, is the owner of a 34 percent minority share in RPN-9.

Aggabao cited RA 8954 which provides prohibition on the agreements entered into by the networks.

During the administration of then President Cory Aquino, the Presidential Commission on Good Government sequestered both IBC and RPN in favor of the government by virtue of being owned by the Benedicto family.

Even with the existence of joint venture agreements with private enterprises, Aggabao said the government is inclined to privatize both the IBC and RPN and retain the People's Television as the sole-mandated government TV network.

As of now, IBC will not be sole said the privatization is good, when IBC-13 for being the Kapinoy network No.3 behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA.6.

Neighboring provinces have the highest TV reach than any other region in the country. ABS-CBN has a 99% TV households reached in Metro Manila. GMA has 97%, RPN 95%, IBC 92%, TV5 92% and Studio 23 74%. The current peso-to-dollar exchange rate helped to complicate the net's problems. Once the country's top purveyor of Tagalized programs, IBC-13 got the Asian crisis rendered foreign programs too expensive. Advertisers also cut their placements in foreign shows by 40%, local programs that had cheaper rates and higher viewership.

Tagalized programming on free TV meanwhile middle-class and upper-class TV audience, offered by IBC-13 president-CEO Edgar Boots Anson-Roa is to streamline Kapinoy's expenses. Viva-TV on IBC-13 primetime, such foreign cartoons as Winx Club, Totally Spies!, Pop Pixie and Barbie, now has 60% local content that will produce imported telenovelas Mar de Amor, Teresa and Maria Isabel, popular anime series Cyborg Kurochan, Kirarin and Crayon Shin Chan, Korean asianovela I Need Romance, Wife Returns and Romance Town, reality series K-POP Star Hunt and 2NE1-TV, local drama series Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy and Dear Heart, top-rating phenomenal game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link and the popular talent search show Born to be a Star and also the sports events like the PBA Games.

House to review IBC-13 and RPN-9 franchises

Updated December 6, 2012 - 11:05am

MANILA, Philippines - The House of Representatives is set to review the status of two government television stations relative to possible violations of their legislative franchise.

The House of Representatives has approved on second reading House Resolution No. 2854 “directing the House Committee on Legislative Franchise to conduct an investigation, in aid of legislation, on the current status of the International Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), a holder of a legislative franchise under Republic Act 8954, to determine if there are possible violations on its franchise.

Rep. Giorgidi Aggabao (4th District, Isabela), principal author of the resolution asked the committee to summon their officials to shed light on the matter.

Aggabao said IBC has entered into an agreement with several companies like Vintage Television (VTV), which later merged with Viva Television in 2000 covering the Philippines Basketball Association (PBA).

On the other hand, RPN Channel 9, has entered into a joint venture with Solar Entertainment Corp. in January 2011, he said.

Aggabao further noted that Kitchie Benedicto, daughter of Roberto Benedicto an alleged Marcos crony, is the owner of a 34-percent minority share in RPN-9. Nation (Article MRec), pagematch: 1, sectionmatch: 1 Records show that Congress granted IBC-13 a new 25-year legislative franchise under Republic Act 8954 on June 5, 2011. The network now have a programming contract through block-time agreement with Viva Entertainment to air the new primetime programming block Viva-TV, featuring top-rating, award-winning shows genres form movies, cartoons, anime, drama series, reality, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports events while renamed the branding as the Kapinoy network. IBC remains undisputed No.3, next to ABS-CBN and GMA Network.

The lawmaker added that IBC Channel 13 also entered into a joint venture agreement with Prime Realty, an affiliate of R-II Builders Group of Reghis Romero for the development of 3.5 hectares Broadcast City.

Aggabao noted that RA 8954 provides that “the grantee shall not lease, transfer, grant the usufruct of, sell, nor assign this franchise or the rights and privileges acquired thereunder to any person, form, company, corporation or entity, nor shall the controlling interest of the grantee be transferred, whether as a whole or in parts and whether simultaneously or contemporaneously, to any such person, firm or company, corporation or entity without the prior approval of the Congress of the Philippines. Any person or entity to which this franchise is sold, transferred or assigned, shall be subject to the same conditions, terms restrictions and limitations of this Act.”

During the administration of then President Cory Aquino, the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) sequestered both IBC and RPN in favor of the government by virtue of being owned by the Benedicto family.

Even with the existence of joint venture agreements with private enterprises, Aggabao said the government is inclined to privatize both the IBC and RPN and retain the People's Television (PTV, Channel 4) as the sole-mandated government TV network.

Snooky scores exclusive interview with Anja Aguilar

Actress and female broadcast journalist Snooky Serna got another exclusive interview with a certified singing champion and powerhouse singer Ms. Anja Aguilar which is now a singer-actress as part of Viva artists as Viva Artist Agency (VAA) she is now on her contract for IBC-13.

After winning the talent show, which also produced another popular artist Sam Concepcion, she became a member of the teen sing and dance group Pop Girls for a time. She also appeared in bit roles in several ABS-CBN shows, with her claim to fame a Maalaala Mo Kaya episode where she was cast opposite Piolo Pascual, and her among the roster of artists in the noontime Sunday variety show, ASAP 2012. Discovered via her breakthrough triumph at Little Big Star, the young singer now being primed and readied for greater things with release of her solo self-titled album.

The Little Big Star winner on ABS-CBN talked to Snooky about her entry to the Viva-TV's high teen drama anthology series Dear Heart and talent search show Born to be a Star on IBC-13, her much anticipated fourth album after to the success of three albums Anja Aguilar, Tell Me Your Heart and Loves OPM as well as compilation albums Best Dance Hits, and her concert is Anja Aguilar: The Concert.

The scope of the aired piece through on last afternoon's Express Balita was limited, as Serna tweeted that they also talked about Anja's boyfriend.

IBC-13 now No.1 on weekend early primetime

October 8, 2012

For the 4-months after airing, data based on AGB-Nielsen Mega Manila Individual Ratings show that sequestered TV network IBC-13 has been winning over competition in the battle over weekend primetime ratings. Last Sunday (October 7), the AGB Nielsen Arianna Megatam (Individuals) overnight ratings indicated that for all of primetime (2:30pm-12:30am), IBC-13 overtook ABS-CBN to become the 2nd most watched network. For the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) buying the state-owned television networks Radio Philippines Network (RPN) and Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC) wanted to privatize boost the country's coffers in Aquino Administration for president Noynoy Aquino. The government has 100% stake in IBC and 20.8% in RPN, he said.

IBC-13, which has the government-sequestered TV network with its innovative and creative core intact in the media industry also made Philippine TV history is now a strong third player on the local television, grabbing ratings and revenues from media giants ABS-CBN and GMA Network, also will reach throughout the Philippine and the Southeast Asian region along with new IBC characters are mascots Mr. Pinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ, they have helped IBC 13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings.

The network's main broadcast facilities, news headquarters and satellite operations, offices and studio complex are located at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Dliaman, Quezon City, Philippines with the transmitter tower located at the Coca Cola Plant, Roosevelt Avenue, San Francisco, Del Monte, Quezon City. The Broadcast City had IBC-13's corporate headquarters, and the network's news and public affairs department.

Data from Kantar Media show that IBC-13 got an average audience share of 28% nationwide on total day viewership, or 10 points higher than rival ABS-CBN's 43% and GMA's 31%. The upgrade included new transmission systems, among others, as well as the rehabilitation of IBC-13's assets.

IBC-13 further widened the lead in the morning block with an average morning audience share from 21% in last month to 30%, taking 3% shares from ABS-CBN's 38% and GMA's 32%, now down to 29%. This lead was mainly brought about by educational programs Cooltura and public service program Nora Mismo. Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba hit a national TV rating of 12.5% while supertsar Ms. Nora Aunor with a national rating of 11.6%, rattling the morning landscape and trampling ABS-CBN's Two Wives (15.4%) and Be Careful with My Heart (22.6%), and GMA's Kapuso Movie Festival (8.4%) and Chef Boy Logro (9.9%).

Kantar Media is a leading television (TV) audience measurement provider with capabilities in gathering TV viewing data in both digital and analog platforms. It now has total of 3.250 million homes in rural areas across the Philippines (North Luzon, Central Luzon, South Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao) added to its existing 8.820 million homes in urban areas, bringing the total TV universe to 10.125 million homes nationwide. Kantar Media's audience panel now covers and represents 50% of the total Philippine TV viewing population. This is in contrast to other providers that cover only the urban areas representing only 30% of the total Philippine TV viewing population.

The Kapinoy network also got more intense Rosario-led Viva-TV maintained its primetime leadership for the whole month of August in viewer-rich primetime (5PM-12MN) when most Filipinos watch TV and advertisers put a larger chunk of their investment in to reach more consumers efficiently, as it garnered an average audience share of 23%, almost twice than ABS-CBN's 49% and GMA's 29%. This translates to a solid 10 percentage point lead or nearly 50% higher viewing that its nearest competitor.

Viva-TV's more primetime programs also reigned in Total Luzon, hitting an average primetime share of 14% vs ABS-CBN's 43% and GMA's 32%. In the Visayas, Viva-TV's primetime viewership averaged 11% vs ABS-CBN's 56% and GMA's 25%, while in Mindanao, it registered 10% as compared to ABS-CBN's 62% and GMA's 18%.

This dominance was mainly driven by Viva-TV's top-caliber primetime offering on IBC-13 that continue to hold the top program rankings across the country in every region including Mega Manila.

More Filipino homes also tuned in to IBC-13's afternoon block (3PM-5PM), hitting an average national audience share of 18%, higher than ABS-CBN's 39% and GMA's 34%.

Kantar Media, meanwhile, reported that 25 Kapinoy programs secured the top 10 spots in the list of 13 most watched programs in the country in August, which was led by teleserye Esperanza with an average national TV rating of 16.2% and the successful teleserye Pinokyo's Time for an average TV rating of 14.1%, while the phenomenal animated fairy-serye Winx Club, continues to dominate the whole country as the number one program which rated at average national TV rating of 25.1%.

And when primetime clocks in, IBC viewership soared to 23 percent or almost twice the number of households tuning to ABS-CBN had 49 percent share and GMA that had 27 percent share.

Who Wants to be a Millionaire? remained to be the leading phenomenal game show with an average national TV rating of 16.9%, while IBC Express Balita, on the other hand, is still the number one afternoon newscast in the country as it scored an average national TV rating of 20.7%.

When it comes to comedy program, WOW! is still the undisputed leader with 9.7%. The Weakest Link, on the other hand, remained as the phenomenal game show in the list with 12.8%. Viva Box Office is the number one movie block from Viva Tagalog movies with an average national TV rating of 13.9% vs flagship news programs ABS-CBN's TV Patrol (31.9%) and GMA's 24 Oras (18.1%).

The PBA Games ranks the league's highest vieweshop ratings by the Governors' Cup in the national TV ratings of 17.9% when plans for the PBA franchise for the 2012-13 season saw a banner season that set records in gate attendance as well as television ratings among the top 10 for the list of the most-watched programs.

Meanwhile, Can You Hear My Heart (13.2%) claimed the seven spot in the top 13 and made it as the Korean drama on primetime in the list of the most-watched programs, while Sinemaks (11.2%) are among the top 20 in the movie blocks. IBC's noontime show Lunch Break topped all daytime programs, including rivals It's Showtime got an average of 11.7 percent and Eat Bulaga which only hit an average of 15.8 percent.

More programs also proved to be strong contenders in the ratings game as they occupied the 5th to 10th slots in the top 15. These includes The Jon Santos Show (16 percent), Viva Box Office (26.6 percent), The Weakest Link (Saturday) (12.8 percent), Who Wants to be a Millionaire? (Saturday) (16.9 percent), Annebishowsa (Saturday) (16.1 percent) and Fighting Family (Saturday) (11.5 percent). Other Kapinoy programs in the top 15 are Popstar Diaries (12.1%), PBA Games (17.9%), Daily Top 10 (13.4%), Estudyante Blues (11.2%), DMZ-TV (14.1%), and Petrang Kabayo (12.2%).

IBC-13's dance mix radio iDMZ also continued its winning streak last July in Mega Manila by topping all FM radio stations with a 18% audience share, higher by 11 points than ABS-CBN's Tambayan 101.9 got 30% and GMA's 97.1 Baranga LS that only got 24%, according to the Nielsen Mega Manila RAM data.

IBC-13 registered a net income of P1.30 billion for the full year 2011 in privatization said IBC Board of Directors, while news media reported that ABS-CBN net income plummeted to P2.4 billion and GMA Network net income plummeted to P1.72 billion in the same period. When San Miguel Corporation and PLDT setsights on RPN-9 and IBC-13, including San Miguel Corp. and Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT) along with two foreign investors.

Kantar Media, a multinational market research group that specializes in audience measurement in more than 100 countries, has 30 TV networks, ad agencies, and pan-regional networks subscribing to its ratings services. Among its current subscribers are ABS-CBN, PTV-4, IBC-13, Sky Cable, Signal Digital TV, J.

Romero and Associates, 720ConsumerConnect, Starcom, OMD, PhD, Mediacom, Mindshare, MEC, Maxus, Universal McCann, Wellmade Manufacturing Corporation, Brand Ideas, and MPG Havas. They also include pan-regional networks like CSM Media Inc., Fox International Channels, Star HK, Discovery, AXN, HBO, MTV, Sony Pictures Television International, Celestial Tiger, and A&E Television Network. Among these, the following subscribe to both urban and rural TV audience measurement: ABS-CBN, Brand Ideas, IBC-13, MPG Havas, and 720ConsumerConnect. IBC-13 shifted to Kantar Media/TNS after filing a case vs. AGB Nielsen Media Research for failing to comply with its request to investigate alleged cheating and data tampering in TV ratings. The case is still pending in court contrary to claims by GMA and ABS-CBN, which is not a party to the case, that it has been resolved.

New schedule for the PBA this 2012

PBA officials cool on Viva Sports and Sports 5 proposal Malaya Online Edition

July 1, 2012 - Viva Television, holder of the PBA's television franchise and also on Sports5, a sports division of TV5, has proposed drastic changes in the league's playdates, revisions that sources within the league say will not prosper. It also airs as PBA on TV5 which airs monthly and also AKTV, AksyonTV, Kapatid TV5 and AksyonTV International. Viva is the home of the biggest and brightest stars in the country, through Viva-TV, the entertainment network of Viva Entertainment Group headed by chairman and CEO is Vic Del Rosario.

Viva-TV proposed that games be held three times a week, with just one game to be held every Wednesday and Friday starting at 6:30 p.m. to compete with flagship news programs of GMA's 24 Oras and ABS-CBN's TV Patrol while the provincial games also on Saturday nights. It also proposed that 4 hours of two games be held every Sunday starting at 4 p.m. with some halftime entertainment portion for guest, and players reach out to more fans and further expand gross sales while boosting its own drive to recoup its huge investment.

Last season, one games were held every Wednesday and Friday while the provincial games on Saturday at 6 p.m. and two games also every Sunday, with matches starting at 4 p.m. over the outfit's carrying station Channel 13, more sponsors are now lining up for advertising spots. It also airs on AKTV. Excitement is the PBA's new partnership with Viva-TV on IBC 13, the country's number one entertainment network which is fast gaining recognition as Home of the Stars with the dominated TV rating of the giant networks GMA Network and ABS-CBN. While the guest performers from Viva stars during halftime on Sunday.

The 2012-13 PBA Season marks of Viva Entertainment and TV5 deal with the league approximately worth P1 billion to televise the games, P770 million of it in cash. By involving the fans, TV5, owned by telecommunications mogul Manny V. Pangilinan, is also hoping to improve its gross sales and Viva Entertainment, headed by chairman and CEO Vic Del Sosario.

The changes, Viva-TV said, are necessary to counteract the growing opposition posed by the soap operas and game shows being aired by other networks during the nightcap of the league's usual doubleheader. Their favorite stars like Sarah Geronimo, Anne Curtis, KC Concepcion, Anja Aguilar, Jon Santos, Ashley Rivera, James Yap, Maui Taylor, Katya Santos, Vhong Navarro, Cristine Reyes, Charlie Green, Dingdong Avanzado, Sam Pinto, Nikki Bacolod, Edu Manzano and Christopher de Leon who are dominating the Philippine entertainment industry.

Also, the single game days are projected to help boost Channel 13's more Viva-TV programs on IBC such as Popstar Diaries, @Annebishowsa, KC.com, The Jon Santos Show, Petra's Panniest, Dear Heart, WOW!, Esperanza, Pinokyo's Time, I Am Sarah, SM Little Stars, Pantaxya X, Showbiz Star, Daily Top 10 and Especially For You and the phenomenal game shows like Fighting Family, The Weakest Link and Who Wants to be a Millionaire? are all produced by Viva Television.

The PBA's executive committee will meet tomorrow to discuss Viva Entertainment's proposals. A decision is expected to be handed down well before the opening of the league's 37th season last October 1, 2011.

This early, league insiders, including those from the Commissioner's Office, have voiced opposition to the proposal, saying it may help the television network but not necessarily the PBA.

"Mukhang mas talo ang PBA," said one league insider who requested anonymity.

"Kung three days a week ang laro, lalaki ang overhead ng liga sa mga tauhan, upa sa venue and the like," said another source.

Another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, like Ginebra, San Miguel, Alaska, Red Bull, Air 21 and many more.

"Malamang na hindi kagatin ng tao lalo na't kung mahihinang teams ang maglalaban. Isa pa, hindi mo naman p'wedeng i-schedule lagi ng ordinaryong araw ang mga teams na iyon," said another.

PBA tickets range from P150 to P350 while venue rentals vary from P20,000 to P35,000 or a percentage of the gate, whichever is higher.

Viva-TV on IBC sa bagong TV ratings

June 25, 2012 Manila, Philippines - From ABS-CBN's Kapamilya network and GMA's Kapuso network are branding, preparing a war chest to reposition IBC-13 known as the Kapinoy network won as the Best TV station in the 2011 Anak TV Seal Awards and 2012 Catholic Mass Media Awards is now a strong third in the broadcasting industry as Viva-TV. The networks bid to compete with the two major leaders in the ratings game, GMA Network and ABS-CBN. Diliman-based TV station Channel 13 adding blocktime programs mostly on entertainment, the group of chairman and CEO Vic Del Rosario is on a wait-and-see mode as the government's privatization is concerned.

According to chairman and CEO Vic Del Rosario would raise for the network P1 billion through a combination of borrowings and equity infusion. Rosario said the shareholders would like to take advantage of the network's momentum, having gained more following for its home grown programs and Viva Tagalog movies and petition for rehabilitation before the Quezon City Regional Trial Court Branch 93 in program operations, engineering and maintenance functions with responsible for management, administrative and financial services for the employees it is finally privatized with its claim as the third wheel in local TV landscape.

IBC-13 as the country's third-biggest network for the Kapinoy network more than tripled its audience share, according to Rosario. He said the company needed the new capital to upgrade its facilities, adopting a new broadcast technology to upgrade the capacity, reception, equipment, signal and provincial operations with among its priorities is the broadcasting transmission facilities to strengthen its signal to a level comparable to that of ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7, according to chairman Orly Mercado with new head Eric Canoy. IBC's new transmitter through the operation of its 60kw transmitter sitting in a 500-ft tower in the Coca Cola plant, Roosevelt Avenue, San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City with international channel IBC Global and Viva-TV Global, has been available in Europe, Middle East, Canada, North Africa, Japan, Asia, Guam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Europe, Australia and the United States on Dish Network tied up with Pilipinas Global Network, Ltd.

He claimed that IBC-13 recently became more aggressive shown improvement in reach and reception in the installing more transmitters and the installation of the new Board of Directors with Fundador Soriano, Vic Felipe, Ronnie Ricketts and Lauro Vizconde as acquisition of video and audio equipment with cameras, VTRs and monitors. Viewers complained that IBC-13's signal was inferior compared to the two major players listed as IBC Board of Directors by the current administration, to privatize IBC affirmed by the Supreme Court. It made us the most financially stable among all the government-owned networks (like RPN 9 and PTV 4). With the primetime block, Channel 13 is now earning a monthly revenue for an average of Php73 thousand per hour and supplements its monthly income of Php12 million with its earnings from Viva and other block timers, as well as with RPN 9's rental of the facilities. Its daytime block, meanwhile, is offered at Php25-50 thousand per hour.

Made a disclosure at the press conference that the Viva group had ventured into the television broadcasting business with a deal to the 85-percent stake in Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp., which owner and operator of IBC Channel 13 is now a strong number 3 dominated by GMA Network Inc. and ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp., received P500 million in fresh money to finance network upgrading, acquisition of new programs and payment of debts, a ranking official said sequestered by the Philippine Commission on Good Government (PCGG), are now running the network improvement of the airconditioning system at the Technical Operations Center and Transmitter Building in Coca Cola plant, Quezon City with the installation of new units IBCEU president Joseph Yee said payables to current employees already amounted to P200 million.

The money, Mercado said, the privatization is Field Video Remote (FVR) Vans -- two Electronic Field Production and Electronic News Gathering would be used to buy Satellite News Vehicle OB vans with microwave sets and video and audio equipment which would help improve the station's news coverage. IBC-13 posted last 2011 a net income before tax of Php55.92 Million. Satellite transmission to digital video compression making it possible for SNG transmission during the live news and special events coverages as IBCEU and the IBC Supervisors and Directors Union staged a noontime picket just outside the Broadcast City premises in Quezon City.

Installation of the local area network with new beta IBC-13 corporate and entertainment revamped website a totally different design and new functionalities compared to our old site (networking of offices and webpages just newly designed website to changing the current flash elements new look of screenshot for IBC.com.ph). Viva-TV's Born to be a Star debuts September 30 on IBC-13

A certified singing champion Anja Aguilar completes the new Viva TV triumvirate of program hosts on IBC, with Christopher de Leon (Who Wants To Be a Millionaire?) and Edu Manzano (The Weakest Link).

Here now is your chance to uncover the talent and see the stars for the singing contest. Viva-TV's newest presentation Born to be a Star is all set to premiere on Philippine television at 8:30 pm over IBC-13 on September 30, every Sunday right after the PBA and before the country's favorite game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire?.

Hosted by singing champion Anja Aguilar, Born to be a Star is the Filipino edition of the newest sensation to come out of American television. The show provides a launch pad for unknown, still unsigned talents. After passing auditions, the lucky contestants get the opportunity to perform in a production number created expressly for them, becoming in effect stars for a night. All events leading to the special night will also be documented with the aspiring young singers who battle it out each week to become the next Born to be a Star. They will perform before industry professionals who will tell them if they have what it takes to be a star will lure audiences and advertisers, despite the stiff ratings war among local television networks.

"We know other television stations have well-established programming. What we in Viva are offering is something different. And we are confident that this new program would be a huge success," Ms. Ortiz told BusinessWorld in an interview.

The weekly winner brings home R50,000, R100,000 for the semi-finals and R1 million for the grand finals, Anja will host the Philippine version of the popular American talent search Born to be a Star, herself is a product of a talent contest Little Big Star on ABS-CBN. The weekly winner of Born to be a Star will take home P50,000. The semi-finals winner will earn P100,000 and a chance to compete in the finals later this year, where P1 million is at stake as well as the newest contestants from franchised of Endemol.

As starring of Dear Heart (airs Sunday at 2:30pm on IBC), Anja has been a singer of superstar in the world with its episode. On Born to be a Star, Anja give a talent search hosting in the show.

Set to perform as the evening's stars this Sunday are balikbayan Gemma Fitzgerald, a 20-year-old singer and dancer, Camille Cortez, a 19-year-old in Antipolo, PJ Gonzalez, a 18-year-old in Pasay City, Gregg Santos, a 23-year-old in Quezon City, Jea Reyes, a music belle and Gian Magdangal, a 30-year-old Filipino singer.

These stars are provided with their show wardrobe by Globe Prepaid, the No.1 in postpaid and will stay overnight at the Via Mare Restaurant. The award-winning Raul Mitra is in charge of the musical arrangements. This Sunday's judges are TV/stage director Fritz Ynfante, songwriter and record producer Vehnee Saturno, band manager Henry Onglatco and Viva Records artist and repertoire manager Civ Fontanilla. Raul Mitra, who is married to her younger sister Cacai, is the show's musical arranger, director is Rich Ilustre, and with judges by Richard Yap, Jodi Sta. Maria and diamond star Ms. Maricel Soriano.

PBA game fans goes nationwide on IBC

October 1, 2012

It is a first on Philippine TV, and for basketball fans and for the sport. Coming off a banner year, which saw the PBA post record numbers all around--ticket sales, franchise profits, TV ratings, you name it--the 2013 PBA Philippine Cup first conference (which you can watch on Viva-TV via IBC 13) got to be their number one source of income.

Viva-TV will have an all-new PBA games goes live nationwide ratings on the Kapinoy network IBC-13. Also, the Sports5 provided PBA on TV5, which airs monthly, while airs every four-times a week on sports channel AKTV and Hyper, and news channel AksyonTV to bring the best of Philippine basketball to the Filipino people.

The head office of the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC-13) will have more aggressive for surging ahead in the ratings has received reports from all its provincial relay stations that basketball fans have facilities for their allowing telecast the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) games and more Viva-TV programs from continuing to prevent IBC's provincial and relay stations from airing the programs of Viva-TV on IBC-13. Also, sequestered TV network IBC is now a No.3 behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA, according to the survey of AGB Nielsen Media Research. Added that things are looking up for the company as non-primetime sales for programs aired before 5 pm to 12 midnight slot doubled, while creative selling of content has been adding P6 million a month to the company's revenues by presenting a different program every night, promising a line-up of captivating new shows with its diverse genres to the PBA board. Compromise the PBA, and they might compromise their own revenue.

Quality, fan-based broadcasting Viva courtesy of your Kapinoy from IBC-13. Once again, the broadcast partner for the upcoming PBA season is Viva Sports (or Viva-TV via IBC 13) and Sports5 (or AKTV), and because the broadcasting changes introduced by Viva-TV were met positively, fans can expect to feel more love from Viva Sports manager Ronnie Nathanielsz and his crew of play-by-play commentators, game analysts, reporters, and production staff that PBA commissioner Chito Salud is beaming with optimism when asked about the future of Asia's first professional basketball league, talent-wise, at the September 26 PBA pre-season press conference to the trade industry through an event attended by more than 3,000 movers and shakers from the advertising business as well as the stars from the network's upcoming programs.

Channel 13 airs the PBA games on the 5:00 pm-12:00 midnight slot bought by Viva Sports, through a new blocktime sales agreement which gives the government-sequestered station P11 million per month with Channel 13 for making gaining viewership in posing a challenge to the established shows of rival networks have been given new shows as part of the network's continuing strategy to strengthen its Viva-TV primetime programming on IBC, airing a sports events and top-quality programs; prime-time programming through its PrimeTastik block on Viva-TV (Winx Club, Totally Spies!, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link, Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Maria Isabel, Mar de Amor and I Need Romance) as well as its flagship news programs Express Balita and Ronda Trese.

Del Rosario owns the movie outfit Viva Films and Video City, and also Viva Vintage, the outfit contracted by the PBA beginning in 2000, to air the basketball games as well as its new PBA talents. This proposed new sked is win-win for Viva and one sided against the PBA.

Teleseryes are being produced in such high numbers that TV networks often run out of actors to cast. Channels 2 and 7 air an average of five teleseryes at night, with four more in the afternoon. Viva-TV intends to beef up its new primetime teleserye programming in the coming months, more sponsors now line up for advertising spots, they have helped IBC 13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings. Besides showcasing veteran talents like James Yap, Arwind Santos, Gary David, LA Tenorio, and Mark Caguioa, heralded rookies from the 2012 PBA draft are set to make their respective debuts this new season.

The league returns from a season marked by box-office receipts and high viewership ratings; topped with live guest performances during the halftime on Sunday hopes to attract more fans with this season's exciting line up of teams and player by attending live games or watching them at home with the Filipino basketball fans. Viva-TV will feature various genres including movies, cartoons, anime, drama series, reality, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports.

James Yap said into their ratings, For the schedule of the PBA's television franchise to proposed that games be held four times a week slot on Channel 13 would mean that viewers of Channel 13, in the league's playdates will have basketball coming with just one game to be held every Wednesday and Friday starting at 6:30 pm while provincial games on Saturdays at 5:30 pm and also proposed that two games held every Sunday starting at 4 pm while at the time beefing up its new top-rating Viva-TV programming on IBC with the No.1 phenomenal animated fairy-serye Winx Club, action-crime fighting Totally Spies!, comedy show Petra's Panniest, soap-opera teleserye Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy, teen drama anthology Dear Heart, reality show Popstar Diaries and 2NE1 TV, Especially For You, phenomenal game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, new talent search Born to be a Star, new anime like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin, new Korean dramas like Wife Returns, Romance Town and I Need Romance and new Mexican telenovela Teresa and Mar de Amor which become the homegrown programs for the top of the ratings. The changes, Viva Sports said, are necessary to counteract the growing opposition posed by the soap operas and game shows being aired by other networks during the nightcap of the league's usual doubleheader. Also, the single game days are projected to help boost Channel 13's own game shows produced by Viva Television. The PBA's executive committee will meet tomorrow to discuss Viva's proposals. A decision is expected to be handed down well before the opening of the league's 2013 season last September 30. PBA tickets range from P150 to P350 while venue rentals vary from P20,000 to P35,000 or a percentage of the gate, whichever is higher.

Many PBA talents and production people; another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, among like Barangay Ginebra Kings, Globalport Batang Pier, Talk 'N Text Topang Texters, San Mig Coffee Mixers, Petron Blaze Boosters, San Miguel, Air21 Express, Rain or Shine Elasto Painters, Meralco Bolts, Alaska Aces and Barako Bull Energy Cola.

PBA commissioner Chito Salud, welcomed the coming of the PBA because the biggest players, who will use to air the PBA's home station.

PBA on Viva-TV hits number one

October 11, 2012

The Kapinoy network IBC-13, the league's television partner claims that the PBA Philippine Cup on Viva-TV last Sunday was no.1 on its timeslot. As a four-time a week with just one game to be held on Wednesdays and Fridays starting at 6:30pm while the out-of-town provincial games on Saturdays and also the two games to be held on Sundays at 4:00pm. Also, with Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link backing up the PBA on television ratings as well. Also, the PBA Top 5 Plays for the Week will shown during commercial breaks.

On Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, the games will be at the Smart Araneta Coliseum and during the special location of SM Mall of Asia Arena and Cuneta Astrodome. On Saturdays, will be at the provincial location from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao in the Philippines. Ticket rates during Wednesday and Friday will be slashed to a little over half of their rates. Within on Sunday viewers should also tune in for the live musical performances.

Last October 7, PBA Philippine Cup, is a new basketball fans on Viva-TV continues to IBC's major block-timers, for the first time become the No.1 on its timeslot as the companies which buys airtime from the network for their programs. The Nielsen TV Audience Measurement (Mega Manila Individuals) overnight ratings showed that with the basketball league, IBC won 30.8%, followed by ABS-CBN with 25.4% and GMA with 26.5%.

Viva TV continues to give sports fans more exciting action as well as its various genres from movies, cartoons, anime, drama series, reality, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports events is planning to strengthen its homegrown programming on Free TV and provides the Filipino viewers they will add to its strong roster of bringing world-class, quality, award-winning and top-rating shows on IBC-13 like Winx Club, Totally Spies!, Pop Pixie, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire, The Weakest Link, PBA, Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Dear Heart, Donaire Flashback and World Open 10-Ball Championship as well as anime like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin, new imported Mexican telenovelas like Mar de Amor, Teresa and María Isabel and a new top-rating Korean dramas like Wife Returns, I Need Romance and Romance Town plus one such plan is for a newest talent search program to be hosted by Viva's singing champion Ms. Anja Aguilar called Born to be a Star. Gathering the team players of just one game on Wednesday and Friday and provincial game on Saturday and with the two games on Sunday, the PBA 2013 Season last Sunday. The basketball league got a worldwide trending topic on social networking site, Twitter and Facebook. And the opening was perform from Viva stars. Besides showcasing veteran talents like James Yap, Arwind Santos, Gary David, LA Tenorio, and Mark Caguioa, heralded rookies from the 2012 PBA draft are set to make their respective debuts this new season. We know the other television stations have well-established programming boost in ratings.

In the last television survey conducted by AGB Nielsen, league coveror IBC-13 garnered increased viewership percentage on PBA games in both its primetime slots. Primetime viewership of the games increased by 25 percent this conference compared to last season. The move to air provincial games on Saturdays also proved to be a wise decision on the part of Viva-TV as viewership also increased by 55 percent, or a significant rise of 3.6 percent from 2.3 percent.

Mr. Rosario said the basketball league of the PBA Philippine Cup will premiere this Sunday 4:00pm, followed by the talent search program Born to be a Star hosted by certified singing champion Anja Aguilar at 8:30pm, and the phenomenally game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? hosted by Christopher de Leon at 9:30pm.

"We are ecstatic with the very strong rating of PBA Philippine Cup and this is indubitable proof that the PBA players, is and remains a large base of loyal followers. We are confident that PBA commissioner Chito Salud will also deliver strong ratings during weekdays and provide further lift to the ratings of our weekday shows with one game every Wednesday and Friday for the continuous support of throngs of fans and supporters all across the country and in different parts of the world all around ticket sales, franchise profits and TV ratings, thanks to Viva Sports manager Ronnie Nathanielsz along with many PBA talents and production people”

In the same meeting, the board approved Viva Sports’s proposal to change the format of PBA playdates from three games a week to four. Starting this season, the PBA will hold a game each single game on Wednesday and Friday with out of town provincial on Saturday and a regular double-header Sunday topped with guest performances from your favorite Viva stars during halftime.

Another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, among like Barangay Ginebra Kings, Globalport Batang Pier, Talk 'N Text Topang Texters, San Mig Coffee Mixers, Petron Blaze Boosters, San Miguel, Air21 Express, Rain or Shine Elasto Painters, Meralco Bolts, Alaska Aces and Barako Bull Energy Cola.

With its impressive relaunch, PBA Philippine Cup completes a new trio of #1 shows on Viva-TV’s Saturday lineup on IBC. In October, singing champion Anja Aguilar’s Born to be a Star also became the #1 show on its timeslot during its first episode. And Viva-TV’s phenomenal game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? hosted by Christopher de Leon, has been consistently ranked the #1 show on its timeslot and has become such a huge hit that it set a trend in game shows on rival networks.

Because of the success of its shows, in less than a year, the IBC-13 under the leadership of Eric Canoy is now the #1 network on Sunday primetime. The same Nielsen report showed that from 2:30pm-10:30pm last Sunday, IBC-13 got an audience share of 30.9% compared to ABS-CBN’s 28.1% and GMA’s 26.9%.

“Viva-TV has already begin winning weekends on IBC, especially Sundays with Dear Heart, Petra’s Panniest, Born to be a Star, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and Sinemaks. The addition of the PBA games makes Viva on IBC truly the network to watch. It’s any programmers dream to have Anja Aguilar, Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak, James Yap and Christopher de Leon in one network and on one night. And yet, despite having such big name hosts, the great thing about our Sunday lineup is that the four shows are also focused on the audience, the shows all shine the spotlight on the people,” said Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr.

The PBA 2013 Season airs at 6:30pm every Wednesday and Friday, 6:00pm on provincial Saturday and 4:00pm on two double-header Sunday on IBC-13.

PBA Game Star Fans at the Smart Araneta Coliseum

December 1, 2012

The Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) revealed with the PBA Philippine Cup on Viva-TV recently trooped to Smart Araneta Coliseum at Mega Manila to witness the PBA all-stars of the basketball match from first game Barangay Ginebra San Miguel Kings vs Barako Bull Energy Cola and the second game Rain or Shine Elasto Painters vs San Mig Coffee Mixers live on December 2 called PBA Game Star Fans together with Esperanza star Cristine Reyes and Richard Yap will interview during the halftime..

At the opening, basketball fans with a certified singing champion Ms. Anja Aguilar will perform at halftime will sing and dance for cheerdance while the Street Boys at the production number during halftime with rock band Neocolours were treated to fun-filled activities. In the PBA Game Star Fans, Ginebra was playing catch-up all night, and then got close at late in the game at just five points, 76-71. Then Roger Yap hit a dagger three to seal the game for the Barako Bull. Yap was the game's best player with 14 points, 2 rebounds and 5 dimes.

In the second game, San Mig Coffee Mixers eke out a 93-92 victory over rival Rain or Shine Painters to stay at 2nd place behind Talk N' Text. The Mixers were up 90-80 with over 2 minutes remaining but the Painters rallied courtesy of 3-pointer and 3 free throws by Jeff Chan, and another 3 from Beau Belga. But Mixers' defense foiled attempts of Chan and Belga as time ran out.

Don't miss the PBA Philippine Cup, Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:30pm after Totally Spies!, Saturdays at 5:30pm right after Sailor Moon and Sundays at 4:00pm right after Petra's Panniest on Viva-TV on IBC.
